Dear Sir:-

Roscoe Bach, Yard Clerk at Jackson, gave us an assignment order dated October 6th, to pay Seldon Bach $60.00 being due Roscoe Bach for the month of September as Yard Clerk at Jackson. Roscoe Bach is now in Washington, D.C. and we are unable to secure proper acknowledgment to the order before a notary as to the correctness of the signature. In handling the matter with our agent at Jackson he returned the order to me as being witnessed by him, and to the effect that the signature is correct. Will you please prepare a form protecting this company in paying the amount to Seldon Bach. For convenient reference I attach my file, which I will ask that you kindly return.

Yours truly,

W. A. McDowell
Manager.
