

H. L. Williamson,
903 East Main Street, Lexington, Ky.

Birmingham, Ala., Feb. 24, 1913.

Mr. Sam Wilson,
Lexington, Ky.

Dear Sir:-

I recently learned through Mr. John M. Stucky's kind thoughtfulness, of the proposed appointment by Mr. J. J. Donahue, of the Legal Department of the L&N of a Law Claim Agent at Lexington, for the L&N and L&E railroads.

I do not know that this position is within your field as counsel for the L&E railroad, but my desire to obtain the position prompted me to write you regarding it any way.

Perhaps you may not recall me, and if this is the case, please call Clinton Harbison, John Vance or Matt. Walton over the 'Phone, and I am sure that they will be glad to tell you about me.

As to my qualifications for the position; I am a graduate of the University of Virginia, class of 1907, and was in the office of Allen & Duncan for one year. I shall be glad to have you speak to Mr. Duncan in this connection.

For the past several years I have been traveling salesman for the West Publishing Company, and am now so employed, being their Alabama salesman. My home and family are at Lexington, and I am very desirous of returning, especially to engage in any work that is legal in its nature.

Although the salary that I understand is to be offered, is not as much as I have made in the past three years, I think the position would be a step in the right direction for me and I am very anxious to procure it!

I hope that you will not feel that this is too great an intrusion on you, and I shall certainly greatly appreciate anything you may do for me in this connection.

Yours very truly,

(Signed) Harold L. Williamson.
