

April 9, 1917.

Messrs. Morgan & Nuckols, Attys.,
Hazard, Kentucky.

Gentlemen:

Replying to yours of the 6th instant, enclosing fee-bill for a total of $57.00 in favor of W. C. Combs, Clerk of Perry Circuit Court, in the case of Edward L. Napier's Heirs, &c. v. L&N Ry. Co., I have to say that my file indicates that the items included in the bill for $57.00 were reported to Mr. Warfield for payment, along with the judgment recovered by the Napier Heirs in this suit on November 12, 1914. I have nothing to show that the bill was paid, but cannot well understand how the costs should have been omitted from payment, if the judgment was paid, for both were reported by me to Louisville at the same time, to-wit: on November 12, 1914. Suppose you have the Clerk take another look and see if he has not already received the money to cover this claim.

Yours truly,

Counsel.
