Hon. S. M. Wilson,
Counsel, L. & E. R. Co.,
Lexington, Kentucky.

Dear Sir:

Referring to your favor of October 20th enclosing attested copies of judgments rendered in the case of Dally Combs, Nettie Cornett and James Eversole v. L. & E. R. Co. in the Perry Circuit Court, together with the Clerk's taxation of costs in each case. As there has already been considerable delay in the matter of vouchering these judgments and costs I have forwarded the papers to our voucher clerk with the request that vouchers be made in favor of the proper parties as promptly as practicable. But when, in my letter to you of October 13th, I ask you to send me ~~a~~ certified bills of judgments and costs it was on the idea that the certificates requested would be prepared on our regular printed form, several copies of which I am enclosing herewith. From the fact that this form was not used by Wootten & Morgan I am assuming that they have not heretofore been requested to use same and that a supply of such forms have not been furnished them. If I am correct about this will you kindly have Messrs. Wootten & Morgan and other local attorneys within your jurisdiction
