

Lexington and Eastern Railway Company,

Samuel M. Wilson
~~C. J. Cornett~~
General Counsel.

Legal Department

Lexington, Ky.

~~Winchester, Ky.~~

332

November 22, 1913.

Messrs. Wootton & Morgan, Atty.s,

Hazard, Ky.

Gentlemen:-

Enclosed herewith, find voucher for $117.95 in favor of Nettie Cornett but payable, as the voucher itself indicates, to J.K.P. Turner, her attorney.

Also, find herewith enclosed voucher for $148.95 in favor of James Eversole but payable to his attorney, whose name is not actually given in the voucher.

Find, also, herewith enclosed voucher for $168.15 in favor of Dally Combs, but payable to her attorney, J.K.P. Turner.

All of these vouchers, as you are aware, are in settlement of judgments recovered against the L & E Railway Company at the recent August term of the Perry Circuit Court.

I suppose there is no need of urging you to see that these vouchers reach the hands of those for whom they are intended promptly and without delay.

Very truly yours,

Encs.

SMW/A

Counsel.