

April 8, 1915.

Messrs. Wootton & Morgan,
Attorneys at law,
Hazard, Kentucky

Gentlemen:

Herewith enclosed, I hand you copy of a letter of the 7th instant from Mr. Williams, with draft to be signed by you when the claim is closed, with voucher to be receipted by the parties in interest and deed to be executed by May Cornett, Pearl Cornett and wife, Iva Cornett, Sallie Hall and husband, John Hall, to the Lexington & Eastern Railway Company, in settlement of all claims.

Please use your best efforts to close the matter up by deed, as urged by Mr. Williams. If, however, you find this impracticable, advise me and I will prepare a release for all damages claimed by these parties and forward that to you for execution in lieu of the deed.

As I say, however, please do your best to have these parties execute the deed enclosed.

Very truly yours,

encs.

SMW/a

Counsel.