

June 29, 1915.

Judge O. H. Pollard,
Jackson, Kentucky.

My dear Judge:

Acknowledging yours of the 28th instant, I felicitate you on having gotten rid of the inflated claim for attorneys' fees growing out of the settlement of the Thomas R. Deaton case.

I note that this suit will be dismissed settled on the first day of the approaching July term.

Very truly yours,

SMW/a

Counsel.