

June 30, 1914.

Judge O. H. Pollard,
Jackson, Kentucky.

My dear Judge:-

Further answering your letter of the 25th instant, relative to the Hensley cases, pending in the Breathitt Circuit Court, I am today in receipt of a communication from J. J. Donohue, Chief Law Agent, of Louisville, in which he says " in drawing the orders in these cases, the name of the Louisville & Nashville Railroad Company and not the Lexington & Eastern Ry. Co. should have been used. It will be all right for you to change the same accordingly." I have, therefore, made the necessary changes in these Orders and herewith return same to you, and have to ask that you will kindly have same entered at the earliest opportunity.

Yours truly,

Encs.
