

October 30, 1916.

Miss Maude Simms,
Official Stenographer,
Paintsville, Kentucky.

My dear Miss Simms:

In the case in Lee Circuit Court of Carrie Cox v. L & N R Co., tried at the recent September, 1916, Term, in which you reported the evidence, I write to ask that you prepare for me as promptly as may be a transcript of your stenographic notes of the evidence and proceedings had upon this trial. Please prepare such transcript in duplicate, making one original and one carbon copy thereof, and as soon as completed forward to me with your bill for same and the amount thereof will be promptly remitted.

Please let me know that you receive this letter and that you will execute my request and oblige,

Yours truly,

SMW/a

Counsel.
