Ed. Grigsby v. L&N R Co.

....

Messrs. Morgan & Nuckols,

Attorneys, Hazard, Ky.

Gentlemen,

Yours of July 16, returning to me the carbon copy I sent you of the brief for appellant, Grigsby; enclosing me copy of the brief you have prepared for appellee; also the carbon of the transcript of evidence, received.

In accordance with your request, I am returning to you today, train mail, valuable, the carbon of the transcript of evidence. It seems to me your brief is all right, and I will file it as you have prepared it, with the short supplement at the end, of which I enclose you a copy. I will see to the filing of the brief when I learn that the record in this case has been filed at Frankfort. I will not, however, file the brief until I hear from you as to whether or not you think the amendment I propose to make to it is satisfactory. If for any reason you think it is not, do not hesitate to say so, returning it to me with your criticisms and suggestions. On the other hand, if you conclude it is all right, you can deliver these carbon pages of the proposed addition to the brief to opposing
