Judge Samuel M. Wilson,
Lexington, Ky.

Dear sir:

H.C. Eversole vs. L & ~~N~~<sup>RR</sup> Co.

This cause was set for trial the 14th day of the January Call Term, 1917 of the Perry Circuit Court and was tried on that day. The regular Judge being a brother of the plaintiff, we agreed on Hon. E.E. Hogg as special judge to try the case. The case was tried before him and the jury, after hearing all the evidence offered by both the plaintiff and defendant, reported in open court ~~and~~ verdict for the defendant, L & N R.R. Company upon which verdict judgment was rendered dismissing the plaintiffs' petition and adjudging the cost to defendant. The plaintiff filed motion and grounds for a new trial which were sustained by the Court and new trial given the plaintiff and the case continued until the March term.

Yours very truly,
