MORGAN & HARVIE
ATTORNEYS-AT-LAW
WHITESBURG, KY.

June 26th, 1917.

In re suit H. M. Webb Jr. vs. L. & N. R. R. Co.
&c., lately pending in the Letcher Circuit Court:

Judge S. M. Wilson,
Lexington, Kentucky.

Dear Sir:

I beg to state that plaintiff's petition was dismissed and the case stricken from the docket at the April term of Court. The order of dismissal is as follows:

"The plaintiff failing to file reply to the answer of defendant herein, the allegations of said answer are taken as true.

It is therefore adjudged by the court that the plaintiff's petition be dismissed and that he take nothing thereby, and that defendant recover of plaintiff its costs herein expended and this cause is now stricken from the docket."

Yours truly,

Lewis E. Harvie
