

June 28, 1916.

Messrs. Wootton & Morgan, Attys.,
Hazard, Kentucky.

Gentlemen:

Replying to yours of the 27th instant, just to hand, I have to say that in the companion cases of J. B. Tuggle v. L & N and Algy Ruffner v. L & E and L & N, the agent at Typo did not refuse to sell these men or either of them a ticket. I have received a full and very satisfactory report covering the transaction involved in these cases and I am sending same to you, by train mail, under Valuable Label. Please carefully preserve same for use in connection with the preparation of Answers in these cases and the trial thereof.

Very truly yours,

SMW/a enc.

Val. No. 589067

Counsel.