

September 29, 1917.

J. J. Donohue, Esq.,
Asst. Dist. Atty., L&N RR Co.,
Louisville, Kentucky.

Dear Sir:

Herewith enclosed, I hand you Clerk's taxation of defendant's costs in the case in Breathitt Circuit Court of Lora Bonta v. L&N R Co., amounting to $6.10, for which a voucher should issue payable to W.D. Back, Clerk. This case, as you may know, is being appealed by the defendant.

I have, by pencil check marks, called attention to the apparent "splitting" of orders by the Clerk in taxing these costs. In a conference with Judge Pollard today, at my office, he informs me that there is practically no help for this at the hands of the Court, but if you think an effort should be made to have the taxation revised, the matter should be referred back to Judge Pollard for further attention.

encs.

Yours truly,

SLW/a

Counsel.