

July 1, 1916.

Hon. B. D. Warfield,
Dist. Atty., L & N R R Co.,
Louisville, Kentucky.

Dear Sir:

Referring to the prosecution in the Powell Circuit Court of Commonwealth v. L & N, Indictment #75, tried at the recent June term of said court, and in which the jury imposed a fine of $50.00, I have to report that the Court overruled our motion and grounds for a new trial and, since the amount of the judgment does not admit of an appeal, I am herewith handing you a copy of the Judgment and Clerk's taxation of costs, with bill for judgment and costs on Form No. 4; also a copy of letter of the 29th ult., written me by Messrs. John D. Atkinson & Sons, which explains the attitude of the court respecting our application for a new trial.

At the first opportunity, will you please have voucher issued in payment for the full amount due, viz: $59.05, and oblige,

Yours truly,

ones.

SMW/a

Counsel.
