

Louisville & Nashville Railroad Company,

Benjamin D. Warfield,
District Attorney.

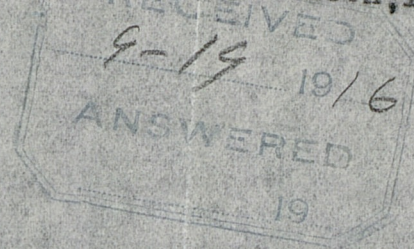

Charles H. Moorman,
Asst. District Attorney.

James J. Donohue,
Chief Law Agent.

Law Department for Kentucky.

Louisville, Ky.

Sept. 18th, 1916.

Messrs. Wootten & Morgan,
Attorneys, Hazard, Ky.

Gentlemen:-

Referring to the case of Ira J. Holliday v. L. & N.R.Co., Perry Quarterly Court, which is a suit to recover $38. as the value of good alleged to have been lost in transit between Blackey, Ky. and Hazard, Ky.

Freight Claim Agent Seger's file L-243900-LS containing papers covering his investigation of claim upon which suit above mentioned is based to you herewith. As you will see, the Company is liable for the loss of plaintiff's goods and voucher to cover will be forwarded just as soon as you advise me that the amount of the claim has been verified. There is nothing in the papers attached showing the value of the goods which were lost but, I take it, Mr. Harvie can, without difficulty, obtain this information either through plaintiff's attorney or from Mr. Holliday himself.

For your information I desire to say that in cases of this kind claims ought to be encouraged to file their claims with the Company's agent instead of rushing to an attorney's office just as soon as loss is sustained. In that way money will be saved for the patrons sustained the loss as well as the
