

April 14, 1917.

J. J. Donohue, Esq.,
Asst. Dist. Atty., L&N RR Co.,
Louisville, Ky.

Dear Sir:

The case of Ella Ford, By &c. v. L&N RR Co., was tried in the Powell Circuit Court on the 26th day of March, 1917, and on March 27th, the jury returned a verdict for $100.00 in favor of plaintiff. With respect to this case, Mr. Atkinson wrote me on the 9th instant, as follows - "No motion for a new trial was filed in this case, it went off in the regular way and the verdict happened to be exactly the amount our law agent had offered in compromise."

I herewith hand you copy of Judgment, Taxation of plaintiff's cost, amounting to $20.69, and Bill for Judgment and Costs on Form No. 4, making a total of $120.69, for which please have voucher issued, and oblige,

Yours truly,

encs.
A.

Counsel.
