

BREATHITT CIRCUIT COURT.

Mary Fugate v. L. & N. R. Co.

File No. 882.

Summons issued April 19, 1921, executed April 21, 1921 and returnable 13th June, 1921

Attorney for plaintiff: J. M. McDaniel.

Prayer: $2,500.00

Damages for humiliation suffered by reason of failure of conductor to give her husband John Fugate proper change when he delivered to conductor a twenty dollar bill to pay his and her fare from a "non-resident" station to Lexington on July 31, 1920, and damage for being compelled to lay out at night at Camp Knox for lack of funds to pay for lodging. All result of conductor wantonly and unlawfully failing to give John Fugate "proper" change.
