Fort Knox Rallies To Win Over Kentucky Wildcats, 12-7

The soldiers of Fort Knox overcame a five run deficit with an eight run rally in the sixth inning to defeat the Wildcats 12-7 Wednesday afternoon on Stoll field.

Fort Knox, with a lineup comprising several ex-major and minor league players, showed across the eight runs by lining out five hits, all of which were singles, by receiving one base on balls, and by three costly errors by the Cats. Only three of the runs were earned in this inning, as the three errors paved the way for the others.

After Fort Knox had reached v. Jones for a pair of runs in the fourth, Kentucky came back strong with a three run rally in the fourth and a four run uprising in the fifth. This sparked the fourth inning rally with a line single to center, driving in two runs. The big blow in the Cats fifth were triples by V. Jones and Mullins and a double by Teico. Centerfielder Pete Arnold stopped the uprising by making a brilliant jumping catch of Stevenson's drive in deep left-center.

V. Jones held the shaggers of Fort Knox to two runs until the fatal sixth. Bob Herbert, who relieved Jones in the sixth, was nipped for four runs in the fourth inning but he worked, with two of the runs in the sixth being charged to centerfielder Herbert. Jones fanned four soldiers and walked three, while Herbert set three free on strikes and issued one free pass to first.

Big John Grodzicki, who pitched major league ball with the St. Louis Cardinals last spring, was master of the Cat batters except in the fourth and fifth innings. With the exception of these two innings, only one hit was made by the Cats—a single to center by Bauer in the seventh. Big John struck out nine of the Cat swatters and walked only one—Mullins in the fourth.

Centerfielder Pete Arnold also was an ex-major leaguer, playing with the Washington Senators of the American League several seasons ago. Second baseman Summers played with Canton of the Mid-Atlantic league last season and was scheduled to play with the Louisville Colonels this year, but Uncle Sam intervened and sent him to Fort Knox. Catcher Dulak wore the monkey uniform for Dallas of the Texas League last season. Pitcher Penno, who was warming up in the bullpen when the Cats were on their scoring spree, was on the roster of the Seattle club of the Pacific Coast League.

The score by innings:
Fort Knox.....002 008 020—12 14 1
Kentucky.....000 340 000—7 9 3

KERNEL SPORTS

The Sporting Way
By ROY STEINFORT

The Sporting World has a big roll riding on the winner of the war. They might as well bet the limit, as they have done, for if they lost, the stadiums would be filled, but not the American way.

In springtime, you wouldn't have the opening of the majors. You'd have the opening of The Hitler Youth Pageant, a mass demonstration of the goose step.

In fall, you wouldn't have the football campaign. You would have the final go-around of the summer maneuvers. You wouldn't worship Tom Harmon, Babe Ruth, Bill Dickey, or Johnny Longden. You'd worship the new Nazi field marshals as though they were heroes of the homeland or gridders.

You'd talk not of who's the leader in the National or the American, but you'd speak of who is the leading master of destruction in the Nazi lineup of murderers and marauders.

Our seas wouldn't want a Tommy Harmon football helmet. He would want the latest Rommel Special, a new and sinister gun that fires bullets, death rays, and gases. We would have all sorts of new fads.

The Kentucky Derby wouldn't be at Louisville. It would be close to Louisville, however. It would be at Fort Knox and Adolf would be the Matt Winn of a field of forty new speedy Mark IV tanks. It would not be a run for the roses, but an iron cross.

You would not cheer Count Fieel or Johnny Longden; you would cheer (or jeer) some thick headed hennie who finished first.

The Rose Bowl would be replaced by a mass demonstration of the two finest Universities on the Pacific Coast in goose stepping and helling Hitler.

It would be a great and momentous occasion. Our fathers and mothers would cheer and yell with enthusiasm as we rammed a bayonet through a human figure placed on the sacrificial altar.

Johnny would not come home with a little gold football emblematic of a championship. He would be wearing an iron cross for displaying his proficiency in slaughtering innocent women and children.

And then we would have the grand festival of Death and Destruction in place of the We're id.

TENNIS TEAM LOSES MATCHES
The University tennis team lost its initial start of the season 5-1 on Downing courts Saturday.

In singles Burris defeated Omar Ratliff, Kentucky's No. 1 man, 6-3, 6-0; Gray defeated Marshall Smith, the Wildcats' No. 2 man, 4-6, 7-5, 6-6; Eilers vanquished Wayne Campbell, 6-3, 6-2; and Hicks scored the only Kentucky victory of the day defeating Miller of Cincinnati.

In doubles Gray and Burris defeated Ratliff and Smith, 1-6, 6-1, 6-2; and Eilers and Miller defeated Campbell and Hicks, 14-12, 6-3.

Dr. H. H. Downing, coach of the Wildcats, said that his boys showed up very well, considering the little practice they have had on account of bad weather. Cincinnati originally planned to bring six men, but because the Army took two and one had a broken arm, only brought four.

A match has been scheduled for 2 p. m. tomorrow with the enlisted engineers from the Phoenix hotel. Monday the netters go to Berea; to Cincinnati Thursday, and Berea comes here on Saturday, May 15.

Omar Ratliff, Sharpshooter, is this year's captain. He and Marshall Smith are the only regulars from last year. The candidates are John Hicks, Jack Scharstein, Roy Cunningham, Trez Geddes, Huston Hodges, Sam Allen, William Long, Wayne Campbell, and Samuel Beriman.

REPORTER EYES EXERCISE GROUP ON JEWELL ROOF
By Betty Travis

Cecil Brown went through a torpeding and an inferno for a news story. A hundred other unnamed heroes of the United and Associated press have endured untold suffering to bring to an eager world, NEWS!

At 5:48 Wednesday morning we staggered onto a bus and rode downtown, fighting with sleep to keep our eyes wide open and sparkling with life. The Women's Physical Fitness program must be reported! With that glowing ideal of service to a news-starved public, we arrived upon the roof of Jewell hall at precisely 6:37 a.m.

A bright-eyed girl in blue shorts and white blouse stood there already, nonchalantly waiting for the exercises to begin. On questioning, we found that she had been getting up daily in time for the 6:45 exercises before her 8:00 class. "Only seven voices," you can't write about it unless you do." Smiling widely, we trotted into position and began to do the "jumping jack," a diabolical little number in which the exerciser claps her hands over her head while jumping up and down frantically. This followed ten more minutes of strenuous, all designed to put "hips, hips away" and give average girls slender figures. As these seven veterans trotted and swayed and bent into all sorts of odd positions, we struggled to keep up the pace. As the others broadly touched the floor, we strained to shorten the 12-inch gap between our hands and the tiles. While the old-timers snuggly executed deep knee bending, we took-keep up the pace. As the others

ASK THE GENERAL IN AFRICA
"OH, FOR AN ICE-COLD COCA-COLA!"
"I'M WRITING HOME ABOUT HOW I WISH I HAD GO DOWN TO THE CORNER FOR A COKE WITH THE GANG!"
"In his letter home, even a general in Africa recalled happy moments with ice-cold Coca-Cola. There's something about Coca-Cola. Ever notice how you associate it with happy moments? There's that delicious taste you don't find this side of Coca-Cola, itself. It's a chummy drink that people like right-out-of-the-bottle. Yes siree, the only thing like Coca-Cola is Coca-Cola, itself."
