Dear Dave.

So you didn't get my Friday letter until Monday and I wrote it especially so you would get it Saturday. I am glad you felt a little worried about me anyway. Both your letters came yesterday - I was sure I'd get one Saturday and was terribly disappointed - don't ask me what I did -

Mother is not so good today - a little too small yesterday - she had a good rest Sunday and felt too fine yesterday morning & over did her strength a little - her face didn't look so well this morning and she was awake about 2 hours last night - just
