COMMENCEMENT WEEK TO BE FULL OF NOVELTY

Many Features That Are
New Appear In 1919
Program; Dr. Wiley
Will Address
Seniors.

One of the most attractive commencement weeks ever held at the University has been planned for the class of '19. A game between the alumni and varsity baseball teams, a pilgrimage to every part of the campus, dear to the graduate's heart, Stroller evening—presentation of three one-act plays, a morning hop and a reunion of every class, fraternity and club on the campus—are the novel features, as planned by the committee, Professors E. F. Farquhar, W. D. Funkhauser and E. C. Mable.

Dr. Harvey W. Wiley, United States Food Commissioner, will deliver the commencement address on Wednesday, June 13. His subject will be "An American in the Making." The baccalaureate sermon speaker has not yet been engaged.

Class Day exercises Monday morning, June 16, will be followed by one of the new events to be introduced, the Senior pilgrimage, when the members of the departing class will march to the beloved spots on the campus, where they will honor the memory of the spot in appropriate speeches. The University Glee Club will entertain with an hour's concert in chapel Monday afternoon, which will be followed by the President's reception at Maxwell Place. The Senior Ball, the grand climax of social events of the

TUFTS TO DELIVER BACCALAUREATE.

James Hayden Tufts, of Chicago, has accepted the invitation of the University of Kentucky to deliver the baccalaureate sermon to the graduating class of 1919, on Sunday, June 15, chapel of the University.

Dr. Tufts has been for 35 years associated with college and university work, having graduated from Amherst University in 1884 with the degree of A. B. He has a degree of A. M. from the same university, and the degree of B. D. from Yale. Later he was given the degree of LL. D. by Amherst. He has studied in the universities of Berlin and Freiburg, holding the degree of Ph. D. from the latter institution.

He has taught mathematics, philosophy and ethics in some of the largest institutions of the country. He has been a contributor to many works of philosophy and is the author of many monographs on philosophical subjects. He was editor of the International Journal of Ethics, published in 1914. He has not sent the subject of his address to the University.

PLEDGES ARE DUE.

Only $340.50 has been collected on the Student Fellowship Fund, subscribed for early this spring. One hundred and ten of the three hundred subscriptions have been paid. The last day for payment falls on Thursday of this week and it is to be hoped the rest of the fund will be promptly supplied. Over a thousand dollars was subscribed.

PHILOSOPHIAN SOCIETY PREPARING GOOD PLAY

Male and Female Parts To Be Taken By Girls of Literary Society;
Mrs. Cave
Coaching.

"The Two Virtues," by Alfred Sutro, will be presented by the Philosopher Literary Society, May 31, at the Lexington Opera House. Rapid progress is shown in rehearsals, and Philosophians are confident that this play, under the direction of Mrs. Sallie Bullack Cave, will prove to be the best production which has ever been staged by the society.

Several important changes have been made in the cast. Miss Alma Bolser was transferred to the role of Jeffery Panton, and will no doubt play this part with even greater skill than she exhibited in her interpretation of Lady Milligan. Miss Elizabeth Marshall, who has been acting as Miss Bolser's understudy, assumes admirably the part of the aristocratic, snobbish Lady Milligan.

A change which promises to contribute greatly to the success of the play is that of Miss Elizabeth McGowan from the role of Alice Exern, companion of the leading lady, to that of Claude Jervoise, the poet. Those who remember Miss McGowan as young Phillip Clandon in "You Never Can Tell" are looking forward with pleasure to seeing her in this new masculine role. Miss Anna Nelson will take the part of Alice Exern. Miss Nelson is a freshman, but University audiences are acquainted with her ability as a reader, and the selection is undoubtedly a good one.

The quiet dignity and feminine charm which make up the character of the leading lady, Freda Gullford, is most delightfully interpreted by Miss Virginia Helm Milner.

Miss Louanna Duckwell, who is also a freshman, from all indications, will establish the reputation as an actress of considerable ability which she won from her dramatic work in Louisville.

One of the humorous roles of the drama is that of the English butler in the home of Jeffery Panton. Miss Claribelle Kay plays the part to perfection. Miss Kathleen Brand makes an ideal, demure maid.

KENTUCKY TO BE PLACE OF FIRST BIG CONTEST

Southern Oratorical League
Formed With University
As One of Members;
Good Prize Offered.

The first contest of the new Southern Oratorical League, which is composed of seven of the leading universities of the South, will be held at the University of Kentucky in April, 1920.

The league has been formed by the following universities: The state universities of Alabama, Tennessee, Kentucky, North Carolina, Virginia and Johns Hopkins and Vanderbilt Universities. It is one of the two largest leagues for oratorical contests in the nation, the other being the Northern Oratorical League, with a membership of Wisconsin, Minnesota, Iowa, Michigan, Illinois, Ohio and Oberlin and Northwestern Universities.

One man from each university in the new league will represent his school and all speeches will be made from notes and not memorized from manuscripts. There will be a cash prize of $70, which will be divided between the winners of first and second places in the contest. The representative of the University will be selected by a contest open to every man in the University, which will be held sometime in the first semester.

This entrance of the University into a larger field of oratorical effort is another evidence of the belief of its officers and students that Kentucky will be one of, if not the leading university in the South in a few years.

KERNEL BOARD TO MEET SATURDAY.

Members of the Kernel board and the Kernel staff are officially notified to meet in the Journalism room on the first floor of the Main Building Saturday morning at the beginning of the third hour for election of certain members of the editorial and business staff to publish the 1919-20 Kernel.

JOURNALISTS WILL PICNIC

AFTERNOON OF JUNE 7.

The date for the picnic to Idlewild, given by Professor and Mrs. Enoch Grehan, has been definitely set for the afternoon of June 7. After an early luncheon majors in the Department of Journalism and the staffs of the Kentucky and Kernel will assemble in the Journalism rooms in the afternoon about 1 o'clock and will start for an afternoon of picnicking. The trip to the river will be made by motor cars and about sixty-five members of the department are anticipating a pleasant time.

Y. W. C. A. CAMP WILL BE POSTPONED UNTIL SUMMER.

The Y. W. C. A. camping party at High Bridge, postponed from last Saturday, is now being planned for the summer, as there are no open dates until after commencement. The camp will probably be given some time in August and members of the old and new cabinets are looking to a successful as well as enjoyable conference.

LEAGUE OF NATIONS PAGEANT ANNOUNCED

English Department Will Present Composition of University Students.

"The League of Nations," a beautiful, spectacular, significant pageant, will be presented on the University campus Thursday, May 29, at 8:15 p. m., under the direction of the English Department. Miss Jewell, as general director, will be assisted by a general committee, consisting of Professors Dantzler, Farquhar, Mable, Whiting and Lampert, Misses Hopkins, Bean, Lamereaux, Ora Lee Jones, Roberta Thornton, Catherine Herring, Eliza Spurrier and Mildred Graham and James Dixon and William Soward. The pageant was composed by Dixon and Miss Jones, assisted by Soward and Misses Thornton and Herring.

The general theme is the triumph of Democracy over Autocracy. The action will be preceded by a number of artistic dances which epitomize the story much as a prologue introduces the action in a drama. A series of episodes follows, picturing an epoch-making scene in the history of each of the allied nations, England, France, Italy and America. The Great World War will be represented, beginning with a personification of Belgium mistreated and trampled underfoot by Germany, and ending with the final overthrow of the tyrant. Permanent peace is assured to the world when the demon war is cast from the throne which he has been occupying and banished by the League of Nations.

No admittance to the pageant will be charged. It is the plan of the general committee to raise the money needed to cover expenses, by means of a sale of refreshments before and after the performance. Miss Margaret Tuttle was appointed chairman of the committee which will arrange and conduct this sale.

The advertising committee, of which Miss Mildred Graham is chairman, offers a prize of three dollars and one of two dollars for the best and second best posters submitted to the committee on or before May 23. Another prize of three dollars will be awarded to the person submitting the best cover design for a program, by May 22.

The stage committee is composed of

ALPHA DELTA SIGMA WILL PLEDGE FRIDAY

Honorary Journalism Fraternity
To Take In New
Members Of High Standing.

The Henry Watterson chapter of Alpha Delta Sigma, honorary journalistic fraternity of the University, will hold its annual pledging exercises in the office of the dean of the Journalism Department Friday, May 16, at fifth hour.

Alpha Delta Sigma, national honorary journalistic fraternity ranks with other honorary fraternities in scholastic and character standing. The local chapter was established in the University by the national president, A. S. Mackenzie. Enoch Grehan, head of the Department of Journalism, and noted dramatic critic of the South, was one of the charter members of the local chapter.

Alpha Delta Sigma, like other honorary fraternities, chooses its members from the outstanding students in the University, who, because of personal ability, scholastic standing and moral worth prove valuable in that fascinating field of the world's greatest game—Journalism. The best students of the University, men who made good in the University and are making good in the world, have been members of Alpha Delta Sigma. The first chapter was established in the University of Missouri in 1898, and a representative from there came to the University of Kentucky to establish the Henry Watterson chapter.

Former students of the University who were Alpha Delta Sigma men are William Shinnick, president of the class of '17; John Marsh, Herndon Evans, McClarty, Harbison, Herbert Graham, who is now teaching journalism at the A. E. F. University in France; Owen Lee, Owen Reynolds, Wayne Cottingham, of the Leader; Graclan Bedley and Tom Underwood, of the Herald; Virgil Chapman, president of the class of 1918; Prestley Atkins and James Ross, city editor of the Leader.

Initiation followed by an annual banquet will be held next week. The active members of Alpha Delta Sigma are Enoch Grehan, Lee McClain, Charles Planck, Thornton Connell and Frederick Jackson.

AGS ADVISED TO TAKE TEACHERS' COURSE.

The Agricultural Club met Monday evening at 7:30. The program was an interesting talk by Professor Rhoads on the Smith-Hughes bill and what it has meant to Kentucky. He told of the good it has done for the State and urged students in Agriculture to take the teacher's course for the help it might give them in their practical experiences.

CADETS STAND GOOD ANNUAL INSPECTION

Colonel Cox, War Veteran, Reviews R. O. T. C. Men; Drill May Con- tinue Till Exam Week.

The annual inspection of the University of Kentucky battalion of cadets was held on the campus Monday, from 11:40 a. m. until 3:30 p. m. by Col. Creek F. Cox, Field Artillery, general staff, Washington.

The battalion fell in promptly at 11:40, marched to the field, forming in battalion front, and was presented to the inspecting officer, who gave the order to pass in review.

The battalion was then formed by companies, and troop inspection was held. This concluded the morning program.

Company drill, in close and extended order, was the first thing in the afternoon, beginning at 1:35 o'clock followed by a field exercise, the members of the R. O. T. C. being assigned a military problem to solve.

Colonel Cox arrived in Lexington Sunday and remained over Tuesday, spending the greater part of Tuesday in looking over the university. He returned from overseas in January after seven months' service in France, where he was with the 13th and 77th divisions and saw active service at Chateau-Thierry, the Argonne Forest and the St. Mihiel salient.

It was formerly the custom for drill to end with inspection program, but Major Byars said Monday that drill would continue as it has been conducted, with three hours a week in the basic course and five hours for men in the advanced course.

Major Byars was unable to say definitely when the year's military program would be completed, but drill will probably be discontinued sometime before examination week.

SENIORS EXCUSED FROM EXAMINATIONS

A and B Students Will Not Be Required To Take Finals.

Seniors of the University of Kentucky will be excused from final examination in any subject in which their grade for the semester is A or B, provided the student has 1.5 for the first semester of the senior year. Any student who wishes the opportunity of raising his mark may take the examination.

This was the ruling of the University Senate in a meeting Tuesday afternoon, after reading a petition submitted by the seniors of the University and signed by nearly every member of the class. Instructors are notified to report the names of those students making the required grades in their subjects to the registrar. This plan is followed in many of the larger universities in this country.

LEAGUE OF NATIONS (Continued from Page One.)

Professor Mabie, chairman; Professor Whiting, Messrs. Dixon, Creech and Whipple. Costuming will be under the direction of Miss Lamereaux; Professor Lampert has been given charge of the music and Miss Virginia Graham is chairman of the program committee.

The dances will be directed by Miss Mary Anna Bean. She is assisted by the following girls and their committees: Miss Adele Slade, chairman of the "Dance of the Spirit of the Age;" Miss Katherine Tucker, "The Victory Dance;" Miss Isabel Dickey, "The War Fiends Dance."

The historical episodes are under the direction of the following: Miss Christine Hopkins, chairman of the French episode; Louise Will, chairman of the English episode; Mina White, the Italian episode, and Eliza Spurrier, the American episode.

The members of the cast will be announced later.

DEMOCRATS WILL HEAR WILSON IN CHAPEL MONDAY

Colonel Samuel M. Wilson, who was not given his discharge from the army in time to keep his engagement to speak to the Democratic Club last Monday night, will make his address Monday night, May 19, in chapel. Colonel Wilson is now at Camp Upton, N. J., awaiting discharge from the 77th Division, with which he served twelve months in France. He expects to reach Lexington the latter part of the week.

All students of the University and the general public are invited to hear Colonel Wilson. Girls who aspire to the franchise will be welcomed as members of the club, which will have its first public meeting Monday.

TO DISCUSS THE DEADLY PROBLEMS.

The Kentucky section of the Mathematical Association of America will hold its eleventh annual meeting Saturday, May 17, in the Physics Building with Professor E. L. Rees presiding. Talks of twenty minutes each will be given by the instructors of the mathematical department of the University and professors of other colleges who will attend the meeting.

The meeting will be called at 9 o'clock Saturday morning by President Rees. After the program, election of officers will be held. The present officers are E. L. Rees, president, and H. H. Downing, secretary-treasurer. The public is invited to attend the meeting and special attention is called to those interested in mathematics.

UNION MEETING FRIDAY

There will be an important business meeting of the Union Literary Society promptly at 7 o'clock Friday night. Every member is urged to attend the meeting which will be over in plenty of time for the Junior Prom and the Patterson Hall dance.

CHAMOT, OF CORNELL, TO SPEAK TO CHEMICAL SOCIETY SOON.

The Lexington section of the American Chemical Society will hold its fifty-fifth regular meeting on Wednesday, May 21, at 3 p. m., in the Physics Lecture Room. The section is fortunate in having secured Dr. E. M. Chamot, professor of Microchemistry and Toxicology, at Cornell University, to speak on this occasion. His subject will be "The Use of the Microscope in Analytical Chemistry." The lecture will be illustrated with lantern slides and the treatment of the subject will be found interesting to the general public as well as to the specialist in chemistry.

It is hoped that the faculty and students of the University of Kentucky will avail themselves of this opportunity to hear Dr. Chamot.

UNION WINS BARKER TROPHY IN DEBATE

Cup Becomes Property Of Literary Society First Debating K's Are Awarded.

J. P. Barnes and Goebel Porter, representing the Union Literary Society, defeated M. C. Redwine and W. J. Kallbrier, representatives of the Patterson Literary Society in the annual inter-society debate for the Barker Trophy Thursday night, May 8, in the chapel of the Administration building. The subject of the debate was: "Resolved, That the American System of Trial By Jury Should Be Abolished." The Union representatives affirmed, the Patterson denied.

The debating schedule at the University closed last Thursday night with the annual debate between the Union and the Patterson Literary societies. The representatives of each society had been selected by preliminaries and had represented the University of Kentucky in two intercollegiate debates. The Union debaters had lost to Transylvania University and the Patterson debaters had lost to Centre College.

Because of inclement weather the inter-society debate was poorly attended. Professor E. C. Mable was chairman. Before the contest began he told the audience the history of the occasion, and of the battles that had been fought over the silver cup, popularly known as the Barker Trophy, which was given to the winning team to be held in custody until one society should have won it three times in succession. The Union society had held the cup for two years and the contest Thursday night was to determine whether the cup should become the property of that society or go back into "circulation."

Professors Funkhauser, Calhoun and Butte were selected to judge the debate. Their decision was two to one in favor of the affirmative.

The cup is now the permanent property of the Union Literary Society. Another cup, or some other form of trophy, will be obtained, and the annual inter-society contests will be continued.

Before announcing the decision of the judges Professor Mable presented to each of the four representatives of the societies a gold medal, embossed with a "K," which were the first emblems of the kind to be given to students who represent the University in intercollegiate debating. Hereafter all representatives of the University of Kentucky in intercollegiate debating or oratory will receive one of these gold medals.

PRIZE OFFERED TO SNAPSHOT SHOOTERS.

ATTENTION! Get out your Kodaks and get busy! The 1920 Kentuckian is offering a prize for the best group of spring snapshots of campus activities. These groups of pictures must not be lower than twelve. Pictures of campus scenes, buildings, athletic stars, "profs," etc., are all acceptable. These snaps should be handed in to the Kentuckian office before the end of school if possible.

TRACK MEET SATURDAY.

Kentucky and University of Cincinnati will hold a dual track meet on Stoll Field Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

FACULTY FACTS

Prof. J. D. Turner, of the Experiment Station, has received a letter from the University of Kentucky, who is now doing missionary work in Rio Benito, Africa Occidental. He says: "I am now past two years here, during which time I have only seen two Americans and for sixteen months I have seen only one. And when I tell you that in two years I have treated 24,247 cases and performed 438 operations, 167 of them majors, you will know how busy I am." He tells about his interest in the University, which grows more and more the farther he gets away from it. The letter is dated December 1, 1918.

FACULTY FACTS.

Dr. C. B. Cornell has just received from Washington headquarters of the Red Cross notification of his appointment as director of the University of Kentucky Home Service Institute, which will be held here June 23 to August 2. The purpose of the institute is to train Red Cross workers in community and home service activities. Doctor Cornell will go to Louisville Saturday, May 10, to speak to the city teachers on "The Qualifications of Teachers."

Prof. M. C. James, of the Education Department, has spent the last ten days in visiting vocational agriculture high schools in the western part of the state.

Dean Thomas P. Cooper, of the Experiment Station, and Otis Kercher, head of boys' club work in the State, have returned from a joint meeting of the twelve agricultural clubs in Daviess county, held last week at Owensboro. The purpose of the meeting was to discuss plans for the organization of a farm bureau to carry on extension work.

Wellington Patrick, secretary to the president, will deliver the commencement address at Livingston County High School, Smithland, Ky., on Thursday, May 15.

President McVey gave an interesting talk to the students of Model High School at chapel Monday morning. He urged the completion of their education thru college and pictured to them the necessity of being educated in order to succeed in life.

COMMENCEMENT WEEK

Year, will be given at the Phoenix Hotel Monday evening.

Alumni activities will be extensive. Reunions, the alumni banquet and parade, when each class will probably wear a distinguishing mark or color, will be held Tuesday. The class of '19 has virtually decided upon red, white and blue, since this is Victory Year and they may be known as the Victory Class. The morning hop on Tuesday, June 17, starts a dance precedent. That evening the Strollers will present their three one-act plays at the Lexington Opera House. This evening's program is particularly planned to show old graduates the talent developed by the chief dramatic organization of the University and to remind them of the Stroller plays of their school years.

Wednesday morning commencement exercises will be held with Dr. Wiley's address and the class oration by Lee McClain.

DIXON IS MADE HEAD OF ENGLISH CLUB.

James Dixon, of Bowling Green, was selected president of the English Club at its regular monthly meeting, held Monday night at the home of Miss Virginia Graham, on Aylesford avenue. Miss Roberta Hamilton Thornton was elected secretary-treasurer for the coming year.

The program consisted in a discussion by Miss Frances Jewell, of the "League of Nations," apageant to be given under the direction of the English department. After the program, refreshments were served and a social hour held.

For Selecting A University

For a College Education, there are five things to be taken into Consideration

1. The men at the head of the institution.
2. The scholastic standing and ability of the teaching staff.
3. The location and advantages of environment
4. Equipment, buildings, laboratories and libraries.
5. Cost.

In all these respects the University of Kentucky commends itself to those seeking a higher institution in which to carry on their education.

All departments, including Liberal Arts, Sciences, Agriculture, Law, Education, Mining, Civil, Electrical and Mechanical Engineering.

THE CAVE-MAN IS STILL WITH US.

Lack of appreciation on the part of the aborigine is expected, the criminal or the idiot is not expected to show gratitude for consideration shown him; but when the race of man has attained the civilization and culture which it is now presumed to have, appreciation and gratitude must become a part of every man's make-up.

For many months the campus was in the throes of a training camp, and in such emergencies no regard could be shown for the matter of beauty or landscape gardening. Since the removal of the camp, there has been uniform desire on the part of the student body for improvement in the appearance of the campus, and the administration has begun the improvements desired. Sod has been placed over many of the scars caused by trampler's feet, and in other ways the beauty of our grounds has been heightened.

It seemed necessary for the Senior Court to remind certain students of the propriety of appreciation of the efforts of the administration to help, and it seemed for a time that the University student could be depended upon to deport himself as a cultured person, careful of the feelings of others and appreciative of the beauty of his every day surroundings. On last Friday night that appreciation vanished and some of the students slipped into the ranks of the aborigines. They found that by driving their cars around other cars they could get away in a few seconds less time than otherwise. In doing this they showed no thought of the newly laid sod over which they drove and as a consequence much of it was ruined.

It will doubtless be urged that it was taxicabs serving the crowd at the dance which caused the deep ruts in the sod before the gymnasium building, but the writer knows of at least one offending limousine which is not the property of a cab company. It is admitted that taxicabs were guilty of this thoughtlessness also, but their actions, although culpable, could never be quite so contemptible or disgusting as those of our own students, if they were guilty of this deed.

The Kernel urges that hereafter, members of the organization giving dances consider themselves indirectly responsible at least for preservation of our grounds and that they be more careful of the welfare of the property of the University. We further urge that they inform the taxicab companies which send cars to dances that their service can no longer be utilized if they employ drivers who show so little consideration for the property of the University.

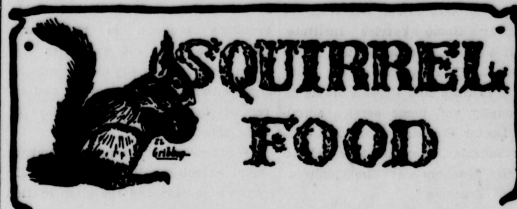

The Kernel is frank to admit that it does not know the offender in this instance, but it serves warning now that henceforth if it can possibly procure the names of persons who have no more regard for the property of the people, and the temporary home of hundreds of young men and women of this commonwealth than thus deliberately to damage it, it proposes to publish their names to the world for the merited condemnation of respectable society.

SENIORS ON PROBATION.

Meeting in regular session Tuesday afternoon, the Senate of the University, granted a petition presented to it by the Senior Class that members attaining certain standing be excused from final examinations this semester.

The Kernel does not take it that the Senate means to establish a precedent by granting the petition to which we refer in the foregoing. It is thot, rather, than the University authorities granted it merely for experiment; probably to see how the 1919 seniors shall conduct themselves towards the University and their classes, now that some of them will not be required to pass final examinations. Yet if it proves worth while to continue the practise begun this semester, it is possible that the Senate will make the rule permanent.

In behalf of those members of the class who, because of effort unstintedly given to their work, are now on the safe side of the dead line, the Kernel thanks the Senate for granting the petition. Some of us, probably, will not be benefitted by the new ruling, but we have no grievance, for in the majority of instances it is our own fault. To those who are able to take advantage of the resolution, much of the worry that is usually attendant upon examination week will not be experienced. Commencement week, consequently, should be enjoyed by seniors who escape examination.

KELLEY WINS CONTEST IN SELLING KENTUCKIANS

Margaret Woll Comes Second In Annual Race; More Year Books Sold Than Ever Before.

Everett E. Kelley, senior in the college of arts and science, won the first prize—fifteen dollars—in the 1919 Kentuckian contest and Miss Margaret Woll, a Junior in the same college was winner of the second prize, ten dollars. The contest closed Saturday, May 10, at 12 o'clock, Kelley winning with 202 subscriptions.

The contestants worked efficiently and seriously in the contest and as a result more annuals have been sold to the student and faculty of the University than ever before. The 1919 Kentuckian is now in the hands of the printers for final completion, and it is hoped that they will be able to make the first shipment June 1. All copy is in, the engraving excels any that has been done previously and it is believed the year-book will find a welcome among the students of the University.

The 1919 Kentuckian is to be bound in a semi-flexible leather cover, embossed with the dove of peace, holding in its claws, the laurels. The Victory idea is carried out thruout the publication by a series of clever drawings done by William Wallace, art editor of the 1919 Kentuckian.

To Miss Eliza Piggott goes the credit for putting into the publication the interesting news matter, the attractive write-ups, the clever arrangements and pictures. As editor-in-chief, she was responsible for the make-up of the book.

F. M. Jackson, business manager of the annual, requests all organizations on the campus who have failed to pay their assessments or space charges to come to the Kentuckian room at their earliest convenience or to mail him a check. Final settlements of debts must be made this week.

AGS. TO SEE MOVIES.

Two reels of moving pictures will be exhibited at the meeting of the Agricultural Society Monday night, May 19. These reels will show the farm tractor in operation performing various kinds of farm work.

Another reel will show in detail the process of manufacturing an automobile from start to finish in the Ford factory at Detroit. These films have been secured thru the efforts of the Department of Farm Management of the College of Agriculture, the idea being to show how efficiency may be increased on the farm in the first place by the use of the tractor, and in the second place by the introduction of efficiency methods which have been so effective in revolutionizing the work of industrial plants.

The meeting will be held in the lecture room of the new Chemistry building at 7:30 o'clock. Everyone in the University is invited to be present.

WILDCATS ROMP AGAIN OVER CINCINNATI TEAM

Thomas Wields Stick In True Form, While Sauer and Brown Play Sensational Ball.

Another victory was credited to the Wildcat record last Monday when the visiting team from the University of Cincinnati was defeated for the second time this season by a score of 7 to 4.

The game with Cincinnati, played on Stoll Field Monday, was not nearly so fast and hard fought as the game between the two rivals played in Ohio. This was either because the Ohioans were weaker or the Kentuckians were stronger than in the previous game. Kentucky fans prefer to believe the latter was the case. Many errors marred the fielding of both teams. The slugging of the Wildcats kept Kentucky in the lead during the entire game. Brown, Thomas and Sauer did specially good work with the stick and the field. Sauer made one of the best catches of the season in right field. Brown also made a sensational catch at first.

Long hits were plentiful in the game. Thomas and Sauer each slammed out a three-bagger, and Zerfoss, Brown and Slomer each scored two-baggers. The only long hits made by the visitors were a three-bagger by Malone and a two-bagger by Seltz. Zerfoss, for Kentucky, brought in two runs out of three times at the bat. Sauer had the prettiest swat of the game, his ball soaring over the head of the center fielder and rolling up against the barracks at the back of Stoll Field.

Slomer, Wildcat twirler, lacked perfect control, walking six men. Malone did not allow any bases on balls, but it was proved to him that more than lefthand control was necessary to win a baseball game. Slomer struck out eight men, and Malone struck out six. Kentucky made nine hits and Cincinnati made seven.

During the sixth and seventh innings Cincinnati started a rally, but Slomer got his old form back, and the danger was soon past.

UNIT NINE WILL TRY TO WALLOP WILDCATS

Former League Stars Who Served Under Barrow Will Line Up Against Immortals of 1919.

One of the most interesting events on the athletic calendar for the remainder of the season is a baseball game to be played between members of the noted Barrow Unit and the University Wildcats on Stoll Field Thursday afternoon, May 15, at 3:45 o'clock.

To show the varsity that nine months overseas has not injured their baseball skill members of Unit 40, popularly known as Barrow's Unit, will try to wallop the Wildcats Thursday afternoon. With one exception all the players on the opposing team were members of Barrow's Unit. "Rasty" Wright, who will probably play center field for the overseas team was enlisted in the Naval Aviation and saw service in France. On the Barrow's Unit team are several players well known to Lexington fans.

The following is the probable line-up of the Barrow's Unit team: Myers, catcher; McKinney, pitcher; Deane, first base; Ingels (formerly with Winchester in Blue Grass League), short stop; Kimbrough (formerly with the Colts), second base; Burnaugh, third base; Allender, left field; "Rasty" Wright, center field; Hal Hunter, right field.

JUPITER PLUVIUS KNOWS NO MERCY.

Continued rainy weather last week played havoc with the Wildcat athletic schedule. The Depauw University game, which was to have been played last Thursday, and was called off on account of rain, has been dropped from the schedule. The afternoon of track and baseball contests with Centre College that was scheduled for last Saturday has been postponed until Saturday afternoon, May 31. The track meet and the baseball game will be held on Stoll Field at this date, and another baseball game will be played with Centre at Danville, June 10.

LOOK HERE YOU TENNIS PLAYERS

Get in the Game and Win One Of the Prizes Offered.

Preliminaries for the tennis tournament announced in a recent issue of the Kernel will begin Monday afternoon, May 19. All entries must be in the hands of Athletic Director Boles before the first game starts Monday afternoon. Three prizes will be given by the University Book Store, two prizes for the winners in the doubles, and one prize for the winner in the singles.

WILDCATS WIN FROM GEORGETOWN TIGERS

Brown, First Sacker, Slams Out Home Run and Two-bagger, Hitting Features.

The Kentucky Wildcats defeated the Georgetown Tigers Tuesday afternoon by a score of 12 to 6. The game was played on the Hinton Field diamond in Georgetown. The heavy hitting of Wildcats was the feature of the game, the total of hits made by them being fifteen. Brown, the classy Wildcat first sacker, slammed out a home run, Wicked With Willow.

Steady improvement in batting and fielding was demonstrated by the Wildcats in the game with Georgetown Tuesday. Only three errors were registered against the Kentucky players, and, on the other hand, fifteen hits were made against a total of five for Georgetown. "Doc" Lasley pitched a good brand of ball, striking out ten men and allowing only two bases on balls. The opposing pitchers, Sullivan and Blakey, struck out only two men and allowed five walks.

Gill Has Big Opinion. In First Baseman Brown, Coach Gill thinks he has the classiest all-around collegiate baseball player in the South. Until the present season Brown had never played at the first sack, but he began work in earnest at the new position assigned him by Coach Gill, and has developed into one of the most dependable players on the team. His fielding is always sure, and his batting average has been a source of worry to "Speedy" Propps for several weeks. Brown and Propps have taken turn about heading the Wildcat batting averages for the last three games. In the Georgetown game Brown slammed out a "homer" and a two-bagger. Burnham, Zerfoss and Propps also did good work with the bat Tuesday.

Here's the Chaser. The summary by innings is as follows:

Kentucky	.....3 2 3 1 0 0 0 3—12
Georgetown	...1 3 0 0 0 0 2 0—6
Home Run—Brown 1. Two-base Hits—Burnham 1, Brown 1. Struck-out—By Lasley 10, by Sullivan and Blakey 2. First on Balls—By Lasley 2, by Sullivan and Blakey. Hit by Pitcher—Sullivan and Funk.

WILDCATS EXPECT TO WIN FOUR IN SOUTH

Kentucky and Vanderbilt Will Clash in Nashville On May 23 and 24. Kentucky's Wildcats are preparing for four big victories on their Southern trip next week. The team will leave Lexington Tuesday and will play the first games with the University of Tennessee at Knoxville on Wednesday and Thursday, May 21 and 22. The Volunteers are expected to put up a much stronger resistance on their diamond than they did in Kentucky last month, but with the rapid improvement of the Wildcats, Kentucky has little to fear from her Southern neighbors. Friday and Saturday, May 23 and 24, the Wildcats and the Commodores will clash in Nashville.

The Song of the Trig Test.
(Citograph.)

With fingers weary and worn,
With eyelids heavy and red,
The student sat, in kimono and cap,
Using her pencil and head.
Scratch, scratch, scratch,
In cold and hunger they dig,
And still with sighs to reach the skies
We try to learn some Trig.

Work, work, work,
Till the brain begins to swim.
Work, work, work,
Till the eyes are leaden and dim.
Line and angle and arc,
Arc and angle and line,
Till the secants and tangents and co's
Are all a single sine.

Oh, Profs. once students, too
Recall those days long passed.
It is not pencils you're wearing out,
But human folks at last.
Scratch, scratch, cram,
In cold and hunger we dig,
Trying to learn in a single night
A whole three months of trig.
A whole three months of Trig.

Miami President Emphasizes Need of Life Program.
(Miami Student.)

That the early formation of a definite program of life is one of the chief steps toward a successful life, is maintained by President Hughes of Miami.

In college, said President Hughes, we are running thru a series of experiences which for the most part will be repeated in after life and by settling now all of the problems which are possible, we will simplify our entire life. A man's college life is his most leisurely period, and it is during that time that one should think out his ideas on all of the big things which come into his life.

"Have an opinion on things," he urged, "it doesn't matter so much whether it is exactly correct, the fact that you have an opinion and can formulate one, is worth a great deal."

Gone to the "Holy Land." (Mississippian.)

In a small village in Ireland the mother of a soldier met the village priest, who asked her if she had had bad news.

"Sure, I have," she said.
"Pat has been killed."
"Oh, I am very sorry," said the priest.
"Did you receive word from the war office,"

"No," she said, "I received word from himself."
The priest looked perplexed and said, "But how is that?"
"Sure," she said, "here is the letter read it for yourself."
The letter said, "Dear mother—I am now in the Holy Land."

AIN'T IT FIERCE WE AIN'T GOT NO "FUNKIE?"

The funeral services of "Funkie," a pet rabbit, belonging to Miss Mildred Graham, were held most solemnly in Miss Graham's room at Patterson Hall at 7 o'clock Wednesday evening, with Miss Lucy Dean officiating. "Funkie," after a short illness had breathed his last that afternoon. All aid possible was rendered him, but the inevitable hour had approached and "Funkie" now reposes in "rabbit Heaven."
It is not necessary to give to the bereaved residents of Patterson Hall history of "Funkie." He was a resident of the Hall at the time of his death, and all had learned to love him for his cunning ways. He was respectfully named for Dr. Funkhouser, whose hobby is rabbits.

The pall-bearers were Misses Roberta Thornton and Lucy Dean, who, accompanied by a long procession, carried the body to its final resting place, the dump in the back yard of Patterson Hall.

TIGERT MEETS MANY BOYS FROM KENTUCKY

Visits Wonderful University of A. E. F. at Bearne; Has Seen and Heard From Old Time "Wildcats."

"Perhaps you would be interested in the Bearne University," writes Doctor Tigert from Andernack, Germany, in letter to the University.

"In about two months this university has enrolled 6,500 students of the college grade and 3,000 below college grade. The university has 540 buildings, all put up by the A. E. F. You will be surprised to know that the Department of Fine Arts is the largest. The painting and sculpture that the soldiers have done would astound you. In the machine shop they have equipment that they do not have at Columbia. To give you an idea, the Civil Engineering Department has 100 transits and about $60,000 worth of equipment. The projection of the university is by far the biggest thing of its kind that has been done by the A. E. F. The Y. M. C. A., thru its representatives, Dr. John Erskine, of Colorado; Dr. Spaulding, of Cleveland, and Dr. Buttonfield, of Massachusetts Agricultural College, put it across but it has been taken over into the army by a recent general order. Doctor Guy Potter Benton, president of the University of Vermont, has charge of the educational work of the Army of Occupation. I have found him a fine man to work with.

"Secretary of War Baker was here at Andernack, day before yesterday and made the principal address at the dedication of a big "Y" hut. He is a very pleasant man to meet, with a good face and a winning smile. He made an excellent speech, taking up the importance of the Rhine in the history of civilization and showing the new current brought to the ancient stream by the coming of the Americans.

"I was glad to get the list of U. of K. boys killed in the war and yet it made me sad. Kimme wrote to me the day before he was killed. I was surprised to see the names of Merrett Powell and H. C. Thompson. Powell, I thought, went West and got over his gas attack. Also, I heard from Thompson last fall when he was flying. He was stationed at Yorkshire, England.

"I wish I could recall all the Kentucky boys that I have met here. I can't even remember the University boys. In England I saw Owen Scott Lee, Len Shouse and others of the Barrow Unit. Only two days ago, I met 'Buddy' Poindexter on the streets of Coblenz. He is a private in the Marines. Also I met Sherley Clayton, a lieutenant in the Signal Corps. Day before yesterday, a private stopped me here at Andronach, saying that he was an old student of U. of K. Powers was his name. So it goes—I meet our boys everywhere. I may have mentioned that I met Loomis, who used to be in the Physics Department, in my former letter, who is an adjutant and captain in the 89th Division. Pete Rodes is the athletic officer in the 90th Division. Lieutenant Willes, an ex-mechanical, is also in the 89th. Captain Willes Stuart is located here at Knuff, but I haven't been able to see him. I have seen men from Lexington everywhere."

FRAZIER WINS CRUM MEDAL.

The annual declamatory contest of the Patterson Literary Society for the Crum Medal was held Friday evening, May 8, in chapel. Emery Frazier, well-known in the University as a Stroller and who has taken part in many of the Stroller plays, won the medal. This contest is one of the biggest events of the society's program and creates much competition.

The other entries were W. H. Peal, H. B. McGregor, P. Pearman and Burton Pruwitt. The judges were Dr. Deltry and Dr. P. P. Boyd.

MORROW WILL SPEAK TO REPUBLICAN CLUB.

The second meeting of the Republican Club was held Friday afternoon at 3:30 in chapel and plans were started for interesting programs which are to be given soon.

Officers were elected as follows: President, E. E. Rice; vice president, Grover Creech; and secretary, Miss Adele Slade.

Professor E. E. Butte, instructor in Political Science, addressed the club. A very interesting speech was also given by Deane Slagle, a sophomore in the Law Department. The club will be addressed by Edwin P. Morrow at a time which will be announced later.

ORATORICAL CONTEST IN GEORGETOWN THURSDAY.

The State Oratorical Contest will be held at Georgetown, Ky., Thursday evening at 8 p. m., May 15th. The University of Kentucky will be represented by Marcus C. Redwine, whose subject will be "A Disentangling Alliance." The following colleges will be represented: Berea, Kentucky Wesleyan, Transylvania, Centre, Georgetown and University of Kentucky. A delegation of students will go over to hear the contest. They will leave on a 6 o'clock car Thursday.

Underclassmen Will Spring a Spite Dance On Juniors the Night Of the Prom.

"The girls of Patterson Hall will entertain with a dance at the hall on Friday evening, May 16, from 8 to 12."

A very innocent, proper little statement, seeming merely to announce that "The girls of Patterson Hall, etc." However, it took a fight, a cruel decision, originality, a house meeting, a sweet lady's plans, a petition, suspense, sorrow, new joy and—a little feminine spite and a briding "We'll show you" from peart underclassmen who should know better.

Therefore for the first time in history, or at least, in the Freshman's memory, two school dances will be given on the same night. At the grand ballroom of the Phoenix, the terrifying formal, Junior Prom will be given. "Druss suits," groans from the victims, "no attractive underclassmen" more groans from the same. "It will be the stickiest affair of the year."

In contrast, picture the enchanting scene at the hall, hear the feeble sax' moaning in one corner, gaze pityingly on the solid mass of struggling jazzers. No impressive Seniors are present to enforce dignity upon the occasion and thrills for the baby vamps—ah me, on with the dances, but blame it all on those Juniors.

ALPHA XI DANCE UNUSUALLY PRETTY

Xi chapter of the Alpha Xi Delta fraternity entertained with an unusually pretty dance Friday evening from 8 to 12 o'clock at Buell Armory.

The hall was converted into a summer house by entwining boughs and branches of green leaves and flowers through lattice work. Rustic benches were placed around the room, and cozy corners, with pillows and shaded lamps, added much to the artistic effect of the scene. The walls were hung with many pennants and college banners, and the quill, the insignia of the fraternity. The programs were unique booklets in blue and gold, the fraternity's colors, containing the program and a space for features, such as the best dancer, the partner, and other memories to be cherished.

SCHOOL PICNIC PUT OFF

The picnic planned by the Engineers for May 24 has been indefinitely postponed. According to a statement of Dean Anderson, head of the department, "On close consideration," he said, "we found that the heavy work of the department interfered and plans for the picnic will be dropped for this year."

PRESIDENT'S AT HOME PROVES SUCCESSFUL

The second "Student at Home" was held at the home of President McVey on the campus last Tuesday evening. A large number of students, faculty men and their wives were present.

A pleasant evening was spent in social conversation and later in singing, led by Doctor Cornell. Delightful refreshments were served by a group of senior girls.

Student receptions by the president are an innovation at the University, which are fast gaining in popularity among the faculty and students. Their object is to promote the general family feeling and spirit of good fellowship between the students and faculty by giving the students an opportunity of meeting their professors unhampered by the restrictions of the classroom.

Doctor and Mrs. McVey were assisted in receiving by Mrs. McVey's mother, Mrs. Sawyer, and the following senior girls: Misses Louise Turner, Mildred Graham, Louise Stevenson, Edna Berkele, Logan Figis, Eleanor Eaker and Elizabeth Pickett.
