Minutes of the University Senate - Jan. 25, 1933

✓ Political Science 191. Parliamentary Procedure and Organization. This course is designed for the purpose of giving students a better understanding of conducting an organization under Parliamentary rules. Some attention will be given to the formation of organizations, the drafting of constitutions and bylaws and the various types of officers necessary to carry on the organization. One hour a week. One credit.

Change in Courses:

✓ Hygiene & Public Health 1. Personal and Community Health. Two lectures a week. One credit. This is to replace the old Hygiene 1, carrying 1.3 credits, the requirements being changed to correspond to the change in credits. The change was discussed with the Deans of the Colleges that require Hygiene, and met with the Deans' approval.

Change in Requirements for Graduation

To correspond to the change of credits attached to Hygiene 1, the Faculty ask that the requirement in Hygiene for graduation be changed from 1.3 credits to 1 credit.

College of Commerce

✓ Commerce 115, Contemporary Economic Thought - be raised to Commerce 215.

The following recommendation of the Committee on Rules was approved:

"On January 5 the Rules Committee recommended to the University Senate that one-half to one unit in Typewriting be allowed for entrance to the University. This course goes in the group of vocational subjects."
