

THE KENTUCKY KERNEL

UNIVERSITY OF KENTUCKY

VOL. XI.

LEXINGTON, KY., NOV. 12, 1920

No. 7

Phi Kappa Tau Installs Chapter At University

Another Fraternity Enters Kentucky — Initiation November 5 and 6.

Kappa chapter of Phi Kappa Tau fraternity was formally installed at the University of Kentucky Friday and Saturday, November 5 and 6. The initiation exercises began Friday and were completed Saturday night with a banquet at the Phoenix hotel. The guests of honor were: Dr. E. E. Brandon, vice president of Miami University; R. K. Bowers; M. M. Amerine; national officers, John Y. Brown, Delta Chapter, Centre College and members of Theta chapter of Transylvania College.

The Phi Kappa Tau fraternity was founded March 17, 1906 at Miami University, Oxford, Ohio, the university known as the mother of fraternities. Phi Kappa Tau fraternity has chapters at Ohio State University at Columbus; Ohio University at Athens, Ohio; Mount Union College, Alliance, Ohio; Miami University, at Oxford, Ohio; Illinois University, at Campaign, Ill.; Coe College at Cedar Rapids, Iowa; Centre College, Danville, Ky.; Transylvania College, Lexington, Ky.; Muhlenberg College at Allentown, Penn. At a recent convention held at Indianapolis, Indiana, charters were granted to locals petitioning from the University of Ken-

Continued on Page 5.

ALPHA ZETA HOLDS PLEDGING IN CHAPEL

Honorary Agricultural Fraternity Chooses Men Making Best Grades.

Scovell chapter of Alpha Zeta, honorary agricultural fraternity held pledging exercises in chapel today at the fifth hour.

The qualifications for Alpha Zeta are scholarship, leadership and character. The men chosen this time were from the two-fifths of the Junior and Senior classes, making the highest grades. From this two-fifths those having most ability as leaders were selected.

Alpha Zeta was founded at Ohio State University November 4, 1897, and Scovell chapter founded November 8, 1912.

The members of the active chapter are: H. G. Sellards, Edward Johnson, J. H. Aterson, Oakley Brown, Hershel J. Well and Clifton U. Jett.

Among the early arrivals for the Home Coming celebrations was John E. Brown '03, of Shelbyville, president of the Alumni Association, and Mrs. Brown, who were planning to take part in every phase of the entertainment.

TAU BETA PI PLEDGES SIX NEW MEMBERS

J. W. Crenshaw Chosen Honor Man of the Junior Class.

Tau Beta Pi, honorary engineering fraternity, held its annual pledging exercises last Friday. This fraternity maintains high standards of scholarship in taking only the fourth of the class that have measured up to the requirements throughout the three years preceding. Last year R. E. Dealtry, of Brazil, was chosen honor man and will receive one hundred dollars in gold at graduation.

E. L. Baulch, R. E. Dealtry, F. D. Weatherholt, R. N. O'Hara, Fred Houston-Shaw and Bishop Hines, compose the active chapter. J. W. Crenshaw was chosen honor man of the Junior class this year, and the following men in the Senior class were pledged: Emmett Shultz, Henderson; Eli Zuckerman, Russia; Fred Luker, Louisville; H. L. Thomson, Providence; W. D. Thompson, Falmouth.

MATRIX TELLS STORY OF PLEASANT OCCASION

Account of Theta Sigma Phi Installation Appears in Official Magazine

By Marguerite McLaughlin

Sweet with the romance of our Old Kentucky Home was the initiation of Phi Sigma, the University of Kentucky journalistic club into the national order of Theta Sigma Phi. We received our honor guest and installation officer, Harriet Daily, in the morning and lunched at the cafeteria at noon just to try to make ourselves feel like the day was an ordinary one and keep down our feeling of superiority over the rest of the mere mortals with whom we hobnob daily from becoming apparent. But honestly that was an effort. Fortunately for our future standing we were able to fly the campus at an early hour. We motored to Idlewild, a beautiful rustic cottage on the banks of the Kentucky river. The day was perfect. It should have been of course, for no other kind of day would have suited or fit in the story. The head of the Department of Journalism had invited us to the annual journalism picnic and we accepted for ourselves and our guest.

We arrived at the river in the early afternoon and swimming, rowing and dancing at Cherry Lodge were our main diversions until the picnic lunch, after a round of yells, songs, and "thank yous," we rowed across the river to Idlewild and were initiated.

Continued on Page 5.

ARMISTICE DAY MARKED BY BATTALION PARADE

Sirens, Whistles and Bells Announce Eleventh Hour.

DOCTOR SAMPEY TALKS

"I believe in the United States of America as a government of the people, by the people, for the people; whose just powers are derived from the consent of the governed; a democracy in a republic, a sovereign nation of many sovereign States; a perfect union, one and inseparable, established upon these principles of freedom, equality, justice and humanity, for which American patriots sacrificed their lives and their fortunes. I therefore believe it is my duty to my country to love it; to support its constitution; to obey its laws; to respect its flag, and to defend it against all enemies."

Lexington Post No. 3, American Legion requested every patriotic man, woman and child to recite the American's creed given above at 11 a. m. on November 11. Sirens, whistles and bells announced the time of beginning.

The program given on the campus of the University opened with a review of the battalion. The review was received by President McVey, Doctor Sampey, Armistice Day speaker; Dean Massie, Father Punch and all of the ex-service men in the University.

The remainder of the program follows:

"America"—Band.

Prayer—Dean Massie.

Reading of the names of University men who lost their lives in the World War.

"Old Kentucky Home"—Band.

Introduction of Speaker—Dr. McVey.

Address—Doctor Sampey.

Prayer — Father Punch.

"Star Spangled Banner"—Band.

JOURNALISM FRAT PLEDGES FIVE MEN

Five men were pledged to Alpha Delta Sigma at the meeting held in the Journalism building, Wednesday at the fifth hour.

Those to receive the honor were: Fred Augsburg, Lexington, a member of the staff of The Kernel and Kentuckian; Emmett Swisshelm a major in the Department of Journalism and a feature writer of note; Dillard Turner, editor-in-chief of the Law Journal; Gerald Griffin, sport editor of The Kernel and H. B. Lloyd, business manager of The Kernel.

Immediately following the ceremony the men were entertained at luncheon by the members of the active chapter.

 From the Files of
 The Kernel

 51 Years Ago.

November 10.—Frank Le Rond McVey born, Washington, Ohio.

Students to Answer Cost of Education Questionnaire

SENIOR STUDENT TO RECEIVE GOLD KEY

Delta Sigma Pi to Cooperate With Progressive Business Men of State.

Delta Sigma Pi the professional fraternity which will be installed in the school of commerce of the University soon, will give each year to a senior majoring in economics, a gold key. The one receiving the key will be chosen with regard to his scholarship, leadership and promise of future usefulness and need not to be a member of the fraternity. The members of the faculty of the University school of commerce will decide each year who will receive the key.

This fraternity gives this key each year in every college in which it has a chapter. This helps to stimulate interest in the schools of commerce.

The chapter of Delta Sigma Pi at Kentucky is expected to do much toward forwarding cooperation between the students in the school of commerce of this University and the progressive business men of Lexington and the State.

KENTUCKY ENGINEERS GET SOCIAL FRATERNITY

Twelve Men Are Charter Members of "Triangle" Dean Gives Toast

Triangle Fraternity.

The Kentucky Engineers fraternity which was organized here last year with twelve charter members and one honorary member, has been granted membership as a chapter of the National Triangle fraternity. After being recognized by the Council and Senate of the University as a local fraternity, it began to prepare a petition to the National Triangle fraternity. This was completed and accepted in May, the votes of the active chapters and National Council being unanimously in favor of the petition.

The installation of the Kentucky Chapter was held Saturday night, October 30, in the ball room of the Lafayette hotel, by two members from each of the four active chapters, Purdue, Wisconsin, Illinois and Ohio State. Speeches were made by F. N. Schusted of the University of Wisconsin, who is president of the National Organization; Walders, also of Wisconsin; Bussy of Illinois; Finch of Purdue, and D. V. Terrell of Kentucky. Dean F. Paul Anderson delivered a toast and extended his best wishes to the new fraternity.

The Triangle Review, the official organ of the National Fraternity, speaks of the Kentucky chapter in the

Continued on Page 8.

Department of Economics Will Tabulate Under-taking.

COOPERATION URGED

A questionnaire, the purpose of which is to gather facts which will enable the Department of Economics and Sociology to undertake a study of the cost of living among the students of the University of Kentucky, has been prepared by the department and will be given to all students to fill out next week.

This investigation of living expenses will be conducted by the class in Statistical Method, which will also compile the facts. It is hoped that by this means an accurate estimate of the individual cost of an education in the University of Kentucky may be obtained. The information is to be taken by college, class and sex, with the aim of finding out total and apportionate expenses.

No questionnaire is to be signed and all individual information is to be strictly confidential. When each student receives his questionnaire, he is asked to fill it out carefully and accurately in order that accurate statistics may be compiled for catalogue purposes and general information.

President McVey has written a letter urging the students to fill out the questionnaire accurately and carefully.

HOME COMING DANCE WILL BE FRIDAY NIGHT

Prexy Unable to Be Here; Writes Greeting to Alumni.

Committees on arrangements for the Home Coming celebration met Monday evening at the Phoenix hotel to make final plans for the entertainment of the alumni who are expected to return to Lexington to see the Centre-Kentucky game.

The first event of the program will be a dance Friday evening from 8 to 12 o'clock in the ball room of the Lafayette hotel, to be followed on Saturday by an old fashioned football rally in the chapel at 11 o'clock, the reunion luncheon at the Lafayette hotel from 12 to 2 o'clock and finally the Home Coming game.

Doctor McVey has sent the following letter of greetings to the alumni of the University.

Dear Friends:
 I am taking this opportunity of welcoming you on the Home Coming Day to the University, and at the same time to tell you how glad we are that you are to be here with us.

Continued on Page 5.

EXCEPTION IS TAKEN TO KERNEL EDITORIAL

Stroller Champion Differs
With Editor as to the Performance.

The editor of The Kernel is in receipt of the following letter:

Nothing is more odious, to the writer's mind, than communications to newspapers in which wrongs or alleged wrongs are discussed and personal grievances are debated for the benefit of the public. However, in a case in which the reputation of a well-established student organization is assailed, when a "rap" is taken at the Try-out Committee of The Strollers, and more or less unkind remarks are hurled at those students who were made members of The Strollers, the writer feels that some effort should be made to bring the facts before the student body.

It is generally understood that the writer of the editorial headed "Amateur Night," which appeared in the last issue of The Kentucky Kernel, was not the Editor-in-Chief but one of his assistants, but as the Editor-in-Chief, as the writer understands it, is responsible for the editorial policy of his paper the remarks which will be made will of necessity be directed at him with the hope, however, that the author of the exaggerated article in question will take the time to read the facts in the case.

While welcoming constructive criticism in any form whatsoever The Strollers still desire the criticism to be based on fact. The writer pleads guilty to the charge that the acts presented Amateur Night were somewhat below the average; to the remainder of the charge the plea will be not guilty.

The hundreds of students who crowded into the chapel Amateur Night seemed highly entertained by the "Rube act, a poorly prepared blackface and a worse burlesque."

In passing we wonder just what the writer of the editorial had for dinner that night that caused him to have such an outlook on life. Perhaps he had attended the Ada Meade the night before and was suffering because of the contrast.

"We were led by misinformation to expect an entertainment of merit," says the article. "Misinformation" proved an able leader and the editor a willing follower when one considers the remainder of the article. As the writer shall endeavor to stick to the truth and nothing but the truth in the remainder of this communication it is suggested that the editor secure an interpreter or guide before perusing what is to follow.

"Seventy-one applicants were accepted to full membership in The Strollers. Not many more than this tried out. In fact, so far as we are able to learn, only one or two Freshmen without connections were refused admittance," boldly states the article. Records of the committee show that about one hundred and twenty-five applicants submitted their names and that of this number more than one hundred appeared before the committee. The facts speak.

"Three priests, so we are told, crawled onto the darkened stage, died, and forthwith became members." Aply expressed we must admit but without a semblance of truth. "Misinformation" leads again, disguised as "we are told." The facts are: Two of the three priests were admitted as Strollers because they had speaking parts in two acts in which they tried out the day before. If the editor still is leary of their ability perhaps a private try-out could be arranged.

The writer admits that some mistakes may have been made; after hearing recitations and witnessing one-act plays for four afternoons and two nights; after hearing everything from "Roses are red and violets are blue," to "Friends, Romans, countrymen, lend me your ears," the patience of any committee is likely to be exhausted. Mistakes may have been made in previous years and the writer is willing to wager that mistakes will be made in the future. Having had occasion to witness the try-outs last year and having seen the annual Stroller play of last year, "The Climbers," the writer is led to believe that judged strictly on the merit shown in the amateur try-outs, possibly three of the "Climbers" cast would have made the Strollers.

The Strollers had undertaken a larger program this year than ever before and plans were made for enlarging the membership. The plans now contemplate the presentation each month of some sort of entertainment for the student body. Several other plans now are under consideration for making The Strollers one of the largest and strongest organization on the campus.

It is not the writer's desire to start a controversy in this matter and this communication, which the writer trusts will be published, should set the facts before the student body. Let this be considered final.

Respectfully yours,
A Stroller.

* Y. M. C. A. *
* By George Gregory. *

DOCTOR NOE SPEAKS

The growing interest in the Y. W. C. A. was evidenced by the large number of men, as yet the best attendance for a single meeting this year, present to hear Professor Noe.

Doctor Noe kindly substituted for the speaker of the evening, Mr. Charles Manning, who was unexpectedly called out of town. He spoke on "Idealism."

Doctor Noe said: "The future of America lies in its youth, and largely that part of its youth which is in college. Education is idealistic but we would not have it otherwise. I am happy to be an idealist, for as such I can keep company with Shakespeare, Washington, Lincoln and Wilson. Idealism is the fundamental factor in the building of a successful life."

State Superintendent of Public Instruction, George Colvin, will give the third of the Life Work Series of Lectures, which are being given by the Y. M. C. A. Mr. Colvin will speak on "Teaching as a Life Profession." He is a forceful speaker and all men interested in teaching are especially invited to hear him at the "Y" rooms, Sunday at 6:30 p. m.

Reserve Annual Space
From Fred Augsburg

All fraternities, sororities, organizations and clubs desiring to reserve space in this year's Kentuckian should see Fred Augsburg at once. Single pages this year are $20 while two pages are offered at the reduced price of $35. A payment of 25 per cent. is required when the space is reserved. The balance is due January 15. No space will be reserved until the initial payment is made.

UNIVERSITY EXTENSION PLANS SCHOOL LEAGUE

Interscholastic Debating and Athletic Contest to Be Held.

The Department of University Extension of the University of Kentucky, is planning an Interscholastic League for accredited high schools of the State. Announcement of plans for such league was made following a recent meeting of the Committee on University Extension.

The League will include at present activities in debate and also in athletics. The accredited high schools of the State will be invited to join the league in these two activities. The plan calls for a series of contests among the schools that are members of either group, and a final series of contests in an annual tournament at the University in May.

The League is organized under the direction of an Executive Committee composed of the Director of University Extension as chairman. The professor of public speaking at the University is a member of this executive committee and he is at the same time director of debate. The Director of Physical Education at the University, who is also director of athletics in the League, is the third member of the State Executive Committee.

Schools accepting membership in the league will be grouped into districts and local committees appointed for series of contests will be held in both debate and athletics and the winners of these contests will come together in a final tournament at the University.

Such leagues as these are in operation in a number of states in connection with the state universities. The University of Texas, University of Indiana, University of North Carolina, Michigan and a number of others have in successful operation similar leagues.

Wellington Patrick, Director of University Extension here, is expecting to send announcements to the various high schools throughout the State in the near future. Professor W. H. Mikesell, director of debate, is making plans for the work of debate, and Professor S. A. Boles, Director of Physical Education, is making preparations for the forthcoming season in athletics.

HEAR SUPT. GEORGE COLVIN AT THE Y. M. C. A. SUNDAY NIGHT

University Pharmacy

offers to the students of the University a complete assortment of Stationery, Candies and Toilet Articles. Prescriptions filled promptly.

CIGARETTES, CIGARS and TOBACCO

Bring Your Kodak Films Here

Opposite Campus

SPORTING GOODS

Nothing aids the natural ability of a team more than outfits of unquestioned quality.

We carry a complete line of A. J. Reach & Son's sporting goods.

HAY HARDWARE CO.
(Incorporated)

LEXINGTON - - - - - KENTUCKY

Phoenix Taxi Cab Co.

(Incorporated)

DAY AND NIGHT SERVICE

WHITE LINE TAXICABS — PHONES 1854-3680
CITY RATES 50 CENTS CARS FOR TOURING
PHOENIX HOTEL LOBBY

For The College Woman

MISS AMERICA

MIDDY SUITS AND MIDDY BLOUSES

ABOVE ALL

IN BEAUTY — CHARM — VALUE

J. D. PURCELL CO.

(Incorporated)

THE CADEN DRUG COMPANY

REMEMBERED THE DISCRIMINATING TASTE OF THE COLLEGE
STUDENT IN CARRYING WHITMAN'S.

A WAY TO SAVE MONEY!—

Five Dollars on Each Club Enrollment.

Becker's Pressing Club

BURTON PREWITT,

CAMPUS REPRESENTATIVE

THE STORE THAT OFFERS RELIEF FROM HIGH PRICES

HIT THE TRAIL UP CHEAPSIDE TO SHORT STREET

MONEY SAVING OPPORTUNITIES

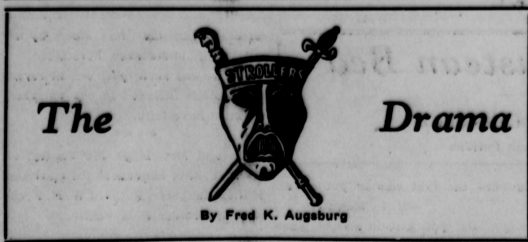

IN ALL DEPARTMENTS

YOU CAN BUY HERE AT LOWER PRICES

HANDCRAFT SUITS AND OVERCOATS,
$45.00 Values $33.75

NEW FALL
SAMPLE
HATS
$3.98

By Fred K. Augsburg

Do You Know That—

Ned Wayburn staged his first Broadway musical show at the old Bijou Theatre in 1897. It was called "The Swell Miss Fitzwell," and the producer not only played a part in it, but did a piano act.

COMMUNITY DRAMA

The community drama program for the year in Lexington was mapped out at a meeting of those interested in the movement last Monday night in the ball room of the Lafayette hotel. Talks were made by Doctor Frank L. McVey, Miss Julia Connelly, Prof. L. L. Dantzer, Prof. E. F. Farquhar and Dean P. P. Boyd.

Plans for the coming season include a number of one-act plays given by community drama organizations in the Campus Playhouse, a student's opera in the Woodland Park Auditorium, pageants, classical dancing and community musicals. The Little Theatre will continue to be the mecca for local community dramatists.

Alexander, Crystal-Seer.

Alexander, the world's greatest master of mental mystics, is the attraction this week at the Lexington Opera House. He is perhaps the one individual who has done more than any other to concentrate the attention of the general public on the various phases of psychic phenomena. At the opening performance Monday night Alexander delighted several University students by telling them that they would be successful in business careers as well as in affairs of the heart.

STROLLER PLANS.

Elaborate plans for the coming year, including a series of entertainments, were discussed at the Stroller tea, Monday afternoon in the Little Theatre, at which the newly elected members of the organization were welcomed. Short talks were made by Prof. M. H. Mikesell, director of the Little Theatre; Carol Sax, head of the Department of Art and Design and Enoch Grehan, who for many years has been faculty advisor of the organization.

Following the talks, a one-act skit was presented by Lucy Smith, Troy Perkins and John Dundon, entitled "The Ideal Wife." Miss Smith showed especial talent in the interpretation of her role. Perkins and Dundon were adequate in their respective portrayals of the husband and lover.

"Christian" Cast

The Stagecrafters of Transylvania College have selected the cast for this year's presentation, "The Christian." Violet Young and Walter Mulberry will have the leads. Other members of the cast are: Ruth Rouse, Carl Fortune, Howard Stephenson, Harlie Smith, Len Smith, Elizabeth McLeod, Emmett Moore and Howard Wright. "The Christian" is a much heavier play than has ever been attempted by the Stagecrafters and will require professional acting by those taking the leads.

"AUDIENCE ALWAYS RIGHT"

What does an actor think of his audience? Wilber Mack, popular actor-author, maintains that an actor's attitude toward patrons is largely the key to success or failure. "In addition to ability to entertain, all successful actors always maintain profound respect for their audience," comments Mr. Mack. "Standing back stage, one frequently hears an entertainer denouncing his audience as unintelligent, 'low-brow.' I have watched the careers of several such entertainers who always blame their failure to win applause on the audience, and without exception such actors never advance far in the profession. The best entertainers regard their audiences as judge and jury. The verdict of audiences is accepted without question by the intelligent actor. If he fails to go he either abandons his faulty material or so alters it as to make it acceptable. The actor is a merchant trying to sell his wares, and if he has material that audiences won't buy and pay for in the coin of applause, then the sensible player stocks up with a better grade of merchandise."

Miss Buzzard Speaks

At Y. W. C. A. Meeting

Miss Buzzard, of the Lexington Y. W. C. A. was the speaker at the Y. W. C. A. meeting at Patterson Hall, Sunday, November 7. In her talk she explained the three sides of the Blue Triangle, one of which stands for the mind, the second for the body and the third for the spirit. Miss Buzzard also explained some of the girls' clubs which have been organized at the Lexington Y. W. C. A. The purpose of these clubs is the development of the three sides of the Triangle.

Another interesting feature of the meeting was a reading called "The Sceptic" which was given by Margaret Black.

YES!

We have everything a "College Man" may need in the way of Wearing Apparel, and you can feel assured that we are at your service at all times.

Thorpe-Lee Company

STYLE HEADQUARTERS
where Society Brand Clothes are sold

at Main and Mill streets

(Incorporated)

Xmas Stationery

WITH THE COLLEGE OR FRATERNITY
SEAL IN COLORS
ALL GRADES AND PRICES

University Book Store

Don't Think For Hours — Just "Say It With Flowers"

FROM

L. A. FENNELL

151-155 N. Broadway

Opera House Block

Phone 498

LEONARD ROUSE, Student Representative

CALLOWAY'S

FOOTBALL SUPPLIES, SWEATERS, KOADAKS

DEVELOPING AND PRINTING

46 West Main Street

Lexington, Kentucky

YOU ARE WELCOME AT

Phoenix Fruit Store

FOR

FANCY FRUIT AND DELICATESSEN

PERSONAL SERVICE

It is always the endeavor of our officers and employees to see that you receive personal attention to your individual requirements whether the business being transacted is of large or small volume. Our facilities are always at the disposal of your friends and acquaintances.

THE FAYETTE NATIONAL BANK
LEXINGTON, KY.

The Graves-Cox Store
Offers New Suggestions

Overcoat Styles

That you as a Young Man will Appreciate Warm Gloves, Underwear, Nightwear, Wool Hose. If Its New in Style and Good Value its here.

College Fellows Shop
Graves, Cox & Company

Incorporated

THE KENTUCKY KERNEL

Published every Friday throughout the College year by the student body of the University of Kentucky.

The Kentucky Kernel is the official newspaper of the University. It is issued with a view of furnishing to its subscribers all the college news of Kentucky, together with a digest of items of interest concerning the universities of other states and Canada.

Subscription, One Dollar and Fifty Cents a Year. Five Cents the Copy.

Entered at Lexington Postoffice as second-class mail matter.

Editor-in-chief ROBT. J. RAIBLE, '21

Managing Editor Martha Buckman, '21

Associate Editors

Emmett Swissheim, '23 Donald Dinning, '22 Mary Archer Bell, '21 Adele Slade, '21 Thompson Van Deren, '21

Reporters

Katherine Weakley, '21 Elsie Rache, '22 Anna Louise Connor, '23 Adaline Mann, '22 Irene McNamara, '23 Esther Harris, '22 Katherine Conroy, '23 Raymond Kirk, '23 George Gregory, '21 Lucille Moore, '21

Business Manager

H. B. Lloyd, '21

Advertising Staff

Burton Frewitt, '22 Harold F. Walts, '23 J. E. Claunch, '24

Circulation Manager

Glenn Tinsley, '22.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 12, 1920.

"STATE" or "KENTUCKY"

There was a picture of the captain of the football team of Ohio State University in last Tuesday's Herald under the heading "Leading State to Victory This Year."

The writer attended a collegiate conference last year where no less than five universities in various states were giving yells for "State."

These facts precipitate the question: why designate the University of Kentucky as "State"? When the official name of this school was State University of Kentucky, there was doubtless a reason for calling it "State," but the name was changed about five years ago to "University of Kentucky."

The writer is informed that the only Kentucky institutions of collegiate rank which actually bear the name "State" are Kentucky State College, near Frankfort, and State University of Louisville on West Breckinridge street in Louisville. Both these are negro schools; so now a reference to "State" could, properly only be applied to one of these negro schools.

"Kentucky," on the other hand is much more definite. Michigan, Wisconsin, Illinois and other larger universities are called by the name of their states. Why should not we, then, be called "Kentucky," instead of being referred to vaguely as "State."

"Suky," our classical yell, could easily be changed to "Uky," (you-qui), without materially affecting it phonetically.

"Hip-hip, Hi-hi, S-U, K-y," the life of the snake dance could also be easily changed to "Hip-hip, Hi-hi, U-of, K-y."

If every student, faculty member and friend of the University will get behind this movement and disparage the use of "State," wherever seen or heard, we could soon have our school called by its real name—KENTUCKY.

ANOTHER ONE

Almost overnight the women students of the University have been infected with a mania for founding "locals." Every little girl who has the ingenuity to think up a new name surrounds herself with a following and immediately blossoms forth bedecked with the ribbons and insignia of the new order. Of course such child's play is harmless in itself, but one confuses such nonsense with the ribbons of real worth that the Strollers and honorary societies use to distinguish their pledges. The names of these "locals" betray their dependence upon the men. Tadpoles confess their relation to the Fish, the nuts are only an attraction for squirrels, the Fig leaves claim the Garden of Eden as their birthplace; as for the rest, their names are self-explanatory. We admire the few women who still remain immune to the attractions of exciting curiosity. If, however, any of them wishes to start a society of this type there is an abundance of names awaiting them.

Our enthusiastic reporter is at it again. There was plenty of spirit at the game Saturday, but to say that it "flowed from the stand, backing them up as in the good old days," seems to us an undue reflection on the morals of our Wildcats.

The Kernel wishes to say that the rumor that it would devote one-third of its space to advertising, one-third to editorials, and one-third to answers to editorials is absolutely without foundation.

UNIVERSITY SENATE NAMES COMMITTEES

Council: President, Deans, Registrar, Chairman Graduate School Committee and Professors Tuttle and Good. Athletics: Professors Tigert, chairman, Curtis, Funkhouser, Grehan. Bulletins: Professors Gillis, chairman, Dantzler, Goble, Roberts, Johnson.

Chapel Exercises: Professors Melcher, chairman, Davis, Mikesell and Lampert.

Commencement Exercises: Professor Shull, chairman, Professor Good, assistant, Professors Mikesell and Brinkley Barnett, Colonel Freeman and Major Tucker.

Student Social Affairs: Dean Melcher, chairman, Dean Simrall, Professor Jewell, Major Tucker, Professor Nicholls.

Graduate Study: Professors G. Terrell, chairman, Tuttle, Tuthill, Good, Johnson.

Library: Professors Tuttle, chairman, G. Terrell, Dantzler, Noe, Zembrod.

Oratory and Debate: Assistant Professor Mikesell, chairman, Professors Noe, Farquhar, Roberts.

Student Publications: Professors Grehan, chairman, Farquhar and D. V. Terrell.

Student Welfare: Dr. Boles, chairman, Dean Simrall, Dean Melcher, Dr. Pryor, Mrs. Stout, Professor Boles, Dr. Ireland, Dr. Locke and Miss Crane.

Student Loan Fund: Professors Webb, chairman, Hooper, Johnson, Assistant Professor Jewell and Miss Cornell.

Extension: Professors Funkhouser, chairman, Dantzler, Rhoads, Noe, Grehan.

Recommendations and Appointments—Professors Rhoads, chairman, Noe Gillis.

Auditing Committee for Student Enterprises: Mr. Patrick, chairman, Mr. Curtis, Mr. Peak, Professor West.

Rules: Professors Boyd, chairman, Gillis, Roberts, Johnson, Melcher.

Discipline Committee: Professors Melcher, chairman, Goble, Bureau, Shull, Gillis.

Accredited Relations: Professors Boyd, chairman, Gillis, Funkhouser, Rhoads, G. Terrell.

The Procrustean Bed

A Department of Prejudice

By Troy Lawson Perkins

"Romance never really died in the world until the first woman put on a flannel night-gown."

—H. L. Mencken.

Criticism of "Blind Youth:" Darkness.

Criticism of "The Trail of the Lonesome Pine."

This play begins: "Hev ye sed any av'em them derned revenooers around here?"

Therefore everyone knows how it ends.

Confessions of a Coke-Guzzler

(With Apologies to St. Augustine)

If there is any fellow I dislike it is one who is habitually punctual. Punctuality is undoubtedly the concept of a child-like mind. It is the bugaboo of broker's clerks, office boys, moving picture directors, efficiency experts, and other mechanical popin-pays. Woman, whose intelligence is immensely superior to that of man, is seldom punctual. Any fellow with a medulla oblongata can be punctual, no matter what the rest of his cerebral organization may be. The concept is one of a small town Sunday school or a first reader or an Orison Sweet Marden joy-juggler.

Another kind of a fellow I dislike is one who is always smiling. He is either a poser or else he isn't human. His perpetual grinning mask is irritating to one who likes to be down in the mouth and to shoot off his head and raise cae occasionally.

I dislike the fellow who is in a constant state of moral indignation. He is nearly always a donkey. He is usually optimistic, earnest and righteous; his hyper-morality is downright immoral. He is forward-looking, advocates new movements and uplifts, and hasn't the slightest idea of what artistic sinning can be.

I dislike snips, snobs, conceited persons, and other tin horn egotists. They are offensive fellows, and need a bath. Not one of them is a genuine egotist. Their small time snobbery is based on fear of their social position—fear, the prime earmark of all inferior mammals. Because their position is insecure and extrinsic, they must wear a badge. But put them in a tight place and watch them melt. Propose to one of them a task requiring self-confidence and self-respect, imposing more than a physical effort, and observe his brummagem front gently ooze into a soft, slimy, subaceous mass; turn to liquid, and eventually pass off in the form of a stenchnful gas.

More than all, however, I dislike fellows who parade their own petty prejudices, likes and dislikes, and their immaterial ideas on unessential subjects.

Every normal woman longs at some time in her life to play the vampire.

A Study in Green

As a student of human depravity, I have, with mole-like diligence, compiled a list of the most frequently used expressions of the Freshman girl. I have, so far as possible, given them in the degree of their popularity. I make no claim to completeness, and it must be remembered that this list embraces no arcana, but is made up of those expressions heard every day—and night. Possibly it will be the beginning of a definite science: descriptive collegiate sociology. However: "Uh-huh," "unh-uh," "yeah," "home," "date," "rushing," "I'm crazy about it," "at our high school," "jazz," "jazz-baby," "shimmy," "I'll say so," "kid," "kiddo," "fudge," "fiddlesticks," "darn," "d—g—o it," "—," "O baby," "sweet daddy," "Wallace Reid," "he says to me, he says," "how d'ye get that way?" "you know what I mean?" "Is that the line you have for all the girls?" "keep your hands to yourself," "I'm not that kind of a girl," "but I haven't known you long enough," "now, don't now," "not so loud."

This is as far as my knowledge goes.

Boarding House Wit:

Callowrific Freshman—"An apple a day will keep the doctor away."

Soporific Sophomore—"An onion a day will keep the whole world away."

The Alumni Association

UNIVERSITY OF KENTUCKY

John E. Brown, '03, president. Miss Mary Scragham, '06, vice-pres. Shelbyville.

Herbert Graham, '16, secy.-treas. Lexington.

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION HAS IMPORTANT TASK

Expressions of doubt have been received regarding the things to be accomplished by the alumni. Some believe still that this organization is an organization which, stirred into a semblance of activity, seethes for the moment and gives off great clouds of steam and smoke only to subside again for a decade or longer.

Be you reminded that no great deed was ever done without faith being in the breast of those seeking to accomplish it. Never was an empire built upon doubt. There are within our ranks men and women with faith and hope and a burning ambition. They believe in the University, in its traditions and aspirations. They believe in the sons and daughters sent out from its halls of learning; they would see the University of Kentucky stand among the great institutions of the South.

The movement has been launched to bind together closely the thousands of former students and alumni for the one great purpose of service to the Alma Mater. There is a great work to be done when this organization has been effected, work that will challenge the resourcefulness of the best of us. Our program of service cannot be undertaken until our organization is complete.

The organization work is not local. It has spread to points throughout the country. Men and women are taking an active interest in this who have not been connected with affairs of the Alma Mater since the days spent on the campus. In addition there is the faithful band that has stood by in everything undertaken heretofore.

Ere we can accomplish all, however, that now is included in our program, we must have faith.

Mr. and Mrs. H. D. McChesney, of Paducah, have announced the marriage of their daughter, Ruth, to W. H. Beckman, November 3, in Cincinnati.

The bride is a graduate of the University of Kentucky in the class of 1914. She was a leader in undergraduate affairs including athletics and the Strollers.

They will make their home in Orville, O.

Announcement has been received at the University of the marriage of Captain I. Bryan '33 to Miss Betty Nelson McGraw, of Philadelphia, at St. James Episcopal Church in that city. Captain Bryan is in charge of the barge office in New York City. He has been in the United States coast guard service for more than twenty years. He saw service in European waters on U-boat destroyers throughout the World War. He was promoted to his present rank, which is equivalent to colonel in the army, as a recognition of his war services.

Letters have been received from graduates in distant points, North, East, South and West, expressing regret that they will be unable to attend the Home Coming ceremonies, many others from distant points announcing that they will be "on the job" on Stoll Field Saturday from the blow of the referee's whistle in the first quarter until time is called on the last quarter.

Letters containing alumni notes have been received from secretaries of the classes of '90, '96, '03, '04, '16 and '19 and from members of the classes of '13, '14, '15 and '20. The general secretary has urged frequently a closer co-operation on the part of the class secretaries in keeping in touch with the alumni. A beginning has been made but it will look very small in comparison with what the officers and the Executive Committee have planned.

Announcement has been received by the Alumni Secretary of the marriage of Miss Miriam Virginia Horine '17 and Russell A. Hunt '18. They are living in Fayetteville, Ark., at 222 East Dixon street. Mr. Hunt is an instructor in department of Animal Husbandry, University of Arkansas.

Announcement has been received at the University of the marriage of Mr. Norman Terry '16 to Miss Laverne Cheek on Wednesday, October 27, at Fulton.

Texas State—The students of Texas State University own a factory in which every student will be given a chance to put in his spare time. Automobile bodies, box cars and ready made houses are the products of this factory. Students enrolling for the school year have taken to the plan. Already over 100 applications for places in the new factory have been received.

KERNEL STAFF

Associate editors will meet fifth hour Saturday in basement of Journalism Building. Every member of the staff must have a personal interview with the Editor in The Kernel office before 5 p. m., Monday afternoon.

ENGINEERING NEWS

University Wireless
Again the Wireless Club has been in active communication with the different states of the country and delivered to us election returns nearly two hours before the Associated Press Wire got them downtown.

A. A. E.

The following officers of the Kentucky Chapter of the American Association of Engineers were installed November 4 at the meeting held in Joseph Dicker Hall: P. M. Perkinson, president; S. M. Spears, vice president; J. W. Crenshaw, secretary; George Hillsman, assistant secretary; D. V. Terrell, treasurer and A. B. Cammack, reporter.

Sophomore Inspection Trip

Auto mechanics have planned a trip to Cincinnati and vicinity with the purpose of looking over the various modern garages, sales rooms, battery stations and filling stations, and may go to Connersville, Ind., to see the automobile plants there.

This class in auto mechanics in addition to the study of engines and automotive transmission of power, will get work from Mr. Singer in the upkeep and design of modern garage buildings, with modern equipment and labor saving devices.

PANHELLENIC BANQUET HELD LAST FRIDAY

The annual Panhellenic banquet of the sororities of the University of Kentucky, one of the most important social events of the school year, was held Friday evening at the Phoenix hotel.

The tables were decorated with yellow chrysanthemums in baskets, and the place cards and menus were dainty booklets adorned with roses. Mary Archer Bell, of Alpha Xi Delta, president of the Panhellenic Council, presided as toastmistress, and the responses were talks on advertising slogans by representatives of the various sororities as follows:

- "Eventually, Why Not Now."—Martha Buckman, Kappa Delta.
"The Flavor Lasts."—Lucille Moore, Alpha Gamma Delta.
"There's a Reason."—Margaret Smith, Chi Omega.
"Fifty-Seven Varieties."—Mary Elizabeth Downing, Kappa Kappa Gamma.

The silver loving cup, presented annually by the Panhellenic Council to the sorority having the highest average in scholarship, was awarded to Kappa Kappa Gamma. Miss Bell made the presentation, and it was received by Elizabeth Kimbrough for her fraternity.

At the Council table were seated

Miss Mary Archer Bell, toastmistress, and Sue Boardman, of Alpha Xi Delta; Elizabeth Kimbrough and Mary Elizabeth Downing, Kappa Kappa Gamma; Martha Buckman and Alene Fratman, Kappa Delta; Margaret Smith and Margaret Harbison, Chi Omega; and Jessie Frye Moore and Gertrude Wallingford, Alpha Gamma Delta.

Nebraska — Nebraska's department of astronomy has opened its observatory to the public, and will give lectures twice a month on subjects calculated to stir the layman's interest.

PHI ALPHA DELTA HOLDS INITIATION

Phi Alpha Delta, the honorary law fraternity established at the University of Kentucky, initiated four pledges at a banquet held in the Lafayette hotel, Wednesday evening. The initiates are John M. Hewitt, Neal G. Sullivan, Samuel H. Cole, and Paul E. Ashby. The initiation was followed by a supper in honor of the new members.

Members of the Clay chapter are Robert Tomlinson, Milton Revill, Carl Lipe, Berl Boyd, Dillard Turner, M. K. Eblen, and Clyde O. Burton. This fraternity is the second largest legal fraternity in the United States and is represented in forty-three schools and colleges of law. In Kentucky it numbers some of the State's most distinguished attorneys on the chapter roll. Governor Edwin P. Morrow, Former Governor A. O. Stanley, Judge Robert E. Franklin, Frank Gnocchio, commander of Lexington Post of the American Legion, Judge Lyman Chalkley, James Park of Transylvania, and the late Captain Reuben Hutchcraft, who was killed in battle in France, were all members of the local chapter.

HOME COMING DANCE—

Continued From Page 1.

There is, however, a great regret in my own heart over my inability to be present at the time of your coming. For a number of years the National Association of State Universities, of which I am Secretary, meets in Washington, November 10-12. As I must be there and am responsible for the program, it will not be possible for me to be in Lexington on the 13th.

Please accept my good wishes, and my congratulations upon your relations to the University and the opportunity for all of us to work together for its welfare.

Fraternally yours, Frank L. McVey, President.

PHI KAPPA TAU—

Continued From Page 1.

tucky, Purdue University and Lawrence College.

The men initiated into Kappa Chapter are: Fred W. Luker, Louisville; C. J. Lemon, Providence; O. Berry Anderson, Hopkinsville; Paul M. Jones, Earlinton; Glenn B. Tinsley, Byron Williams, Hartford; Marshall J. McWhorter, Yosemite; D. S. Smith, Pembroke; Jack A. Atkerson, Franklin; Arthur J. Bradshaw, Somerset; Houston T. Long, Simpsonville; Roy H. Farmer, Midway; Louis T. Pottinger, Auburn; C. Winsted, Cecelia; J. M. Dorr, Lexington. The pledges are: Val Hiestand, Cambellsville; Robert Tyldsley, Central City; Byron Curry, Morganfield; Albert F. Funkhouser, Providence; Ralph Lawson, Central City; and Robert Billem, Franklin.

HOOF AND HORN CLUB HOLDS JUDGING MEET

The Hoof and Horn Club, the live stock organization of the College of Agriculture, will give its annual stock show at the judging pavilion, Monday, November 15, at 7:30 p. m. The feature of the program will be an exhibit of the fat stock which will be sent to the International at Chicago. They will be judged and reasons given by the members of the team. Everyone is invited to attend.

There will be a judging contest of beef cattle open to the members of the Freshman judging team and a dairy judging contest open to any Freshman, Sophomore or Junior. The dairy contest will be conducted similar to the one at the National Dairy Show. Cash prizes will be given for the winners in both contests. The program will close with a chicken sticking and plucking contest, the winner of which will be awarded a pure bred cockra of any kind desired.

MATRIX TELLS STORY—

Continued From Page 1.

My friends, you all know the feelings and thrills of that occasion and there is no need for me to describe it, but I couldn't if I would.

After the exercises of initiation we rowed across the river by the light of the silver stars and a short time later motored back to Lexington.

The installation of officers took place the following day at Marguerite McLaughlin's home with Martha Buckman as president; Lucille Moore, vice president; Adele Slade, secretary and Katherine Weakley, treasurer. Mary Archer Bell. The other members, all alumnae now are: Louise Will, Elizabeth Marshall, Marguerite McLaughlin and Mrs. Enoch Grehan.

There are cats and cats. Some are wild and some are bear. When the Wildcats get wild the Bearcats get bare.

The visitors pitted beef and brawn against strategy and brains.

TEETH

For Any Kind of Dental Work Call on Drs. J. T. & E. D. SLATON Phone 864-X Dentists 127 Cheapside

U. of Ky. Belts

NEW SUPPLY JUST RECEIVED

GEO. T. MARTIN'S BARBER SHOP Haircut 40 Shave 20 Basement 139 E. Main Street Lexington, Ky.

In Selecting a University—

For a college education, there are five things to be taken into consideration:

- 1. The men at the head of the Institution.
2. The scholastic standing and ability of the Teaching Staff.
3. The location and advantages of environment.
4. Equipment, buildings, laboratories and libraries.
5. Cost.

In all these respects the University of Kentucky commends itself to those seeking a higher institution in which to carry on their education.

All Departments, including Liberal Arts, Sciences, Agriculture, Law, Education, Mining, Civil, Electrical and Mechanical Engineering.

The Government needs trained men and women; college training will bring the result.

Address PRESIDENT FRANK L. McVEY

University of Kentucky Lexington, Ky.

Co-operative Drug Company

(Incorporated)

Main and Limestone Streets

Drugs, Patent Medicines and Toilet Articles.

Articles at Lowest Cut Prices

BLOCK'S, PAGE'S AND

SHAW'S AND MULLANE'S CANDIES

The Lafayette

A Modern Fire Proof Hotel With Every Convenience.

Three Hundred Rooms With Private Baths Beautiful Dining Rooms Faultless Cuisine.

Lafayette Hotel Company

(Incorporated)

FINEST BALL ROOM IN THE SOUTH Lexington, Ky.

L. B. SHOUSE, President CHAS. G. McGRATH, Mgr.-Director

We Extend a Cordial Welcome to College Women To Shop at This Great Quality Department Store.

Mitchell, Baker & Smith

(Incorporated)

FOOTBALL ATHLETICS TRACK

By Gerald Griffin and Garry Roosa

WILDCATS MUST WIN HOME COMING GAME

Victory For Kentucky On October 13 Not at All Impossible.

ALUMNI WILL HELP

There is one game each year in which the Wildcats engage that they must win. That game is "Home Coming" game. Last year the much touted Vanderbilt eleven journeyed up to Kentucky for a week-end party and incidentally to trim the Wildcats. The odds were greatly in their favor and they were confident of winning. It looked bad for the Blue and White for they were outweighed and were face to face with the old Vandy jinx that has beset the Kentucky team since the dark ages. Never had they even held the Commodores to a tie. But when they looked up and saw the stands filled with loyal alumni, back to cheer them on, they were filled with that spirit which can suffer no defeat. They not only held the Tennesseans scoreless but played rings around them. Only by the merest chance was Vandy able to keep the Kentuckians from scoring.

"Home coming" game this year will be played against the mighty Colonels of Centre College, a team that is known to be the strongest in the country. What the Wildcats will do against this worthy foe is up, first of all, to the men themselves, but along with the team's best efforts they must have the support of every student and alumnus. When the team marches on to Stoll Field the afternoon of November 13, they are going to stand a much better chance of victory if they see the stands filled to overflowing with old timers.

FRESH-SOPH GAME A 7 TO 7 DEADLOCK

The Freshmen and Sophomore elevens battled to a 7-7 tie Monday afternoon in the final game of the inter-class series. The outcome did not change the standing of the teams, the Juniors retaining first place, with two victories and no defeats, the Freshmen second with one victory, a tie and a setback, and the Sophs in the cellar, losing two games and tying one.

The second year men played good ball Monday and evidenced signs of a comeback. They scored in the first quarter on a blocked kick and led the Frosh bunch until the last minute of play, when in the semi-darkness, the pigskin barely distinguishable, a first year player recovered a fumbled punt and raced over the line for a touchdown just as the whistle sounded. The goal was kicked and the second year crew were victims of an eleventh hour defeat.

Then the argument came. The Sophs claimed, in hot protest of the final score, that they had been wronged and that time had been up before the tally was made. The crowd surged around "Daddy" Boles and the timekeepers, trying to draw conflicting decisions from them. The referee ruled, however, that the Freshmen had won.

STUDENTS DISPLAY PEP AT CINCINNATI GAME

Kentuckians Demonstrated Old-Time Enthusiasm —Human "U. K."

CHEERING BEST YET

When Coach Juneau's Blue and White defenders trounced Cincinnati Saturday afternoon, the Kentuckians fought and scrapped—the traditional Bluegrass spirit flowed from the stands backing them up as in the good old fighting days. Kentucky spirit was to the front through the day's program, and the encouragement offered the Blue warriors made them fight as if their lives depended on the outcome. Going into the fray with odds against them, the Wildcats, spurred on by the support of the student body, emerged victorious over the heavy Crimson eleven, which had not lowered its colors before Kentucky since 1918.

Seething and bubbling over with enthusiasm the onlookers yelled, roared and "racketed" incessantly during the entire game. The display shadowed anything seen on Stoll field this season. Everyone was in on the yells, and between cheers they craved for more, never quiet, always on their feet playing and shouting their best.

Between halves the band struck up some lively marching tunes while the men promenaded to the field and formed a human "K". Following them the women made the letter "U." The formations complete, it formed a pretty spectacle stirring deep sentiment among the spectators. The musicians played "Old Kentucky Home" and all heads uncovered. The enthusiasts marched from the gridiron in order. The event will be memorable in that it was the first instance of the co-eds taking any part in the customary ceremonial processions between the halves at the games.

On Rival Gridirons

- Alabama 14; Vanderbilt 7
- Tennessee 49; Transylvania 0
- Centre 34; Depauw 0.
- Georgetown 27; Maryville 7.

GRIDIRON GAGS

Many Cincinnati rooters who came down in the day coach returned to the Queen City a la pullman—(The side door variety).

Cincinnati beer had its prohibition, the Cincinnati Reds had their Brooklyn, and the Cincinnati Bearcats had their Wildcats.

The odds were three to two in favor of the Bearcats. They should have been 6 to 7.

WILDCATS DEFEAT CINCINNATI, 7 TO 6

Murph Blocked Punt, Backfield Advanced ball, Wilhelm Carried It Over

LINE UNUSUALLY GOOD

Before a record crowd the Wildcats played the University of Cincinnati Bearcats off their feet and won a fiercely contested game last Saturday, by the score of 7 to 6. The Wildcats were outweighed and the dope was against them, but they put up a better brand of football and outplayed the Bearcats from every angle of the game.

Cincinnati started off in great style, making several gains through the line and around ends. But their rush was short lived. After making first down they were unable to repeat the performance and were forced to punt. Kentucky then made first down twice before they were held. It was at this point that Crolley, Cincinnati's fast quarterback, broke through the entire Kentucky team and ran 45 yards before he was nailed by Wilhelm in a spectacular diving tackle. The Bearcats were unable to advance the ball and tried their only drop kick, which was a failure.

In the second period Kentucky was forced to kick from behind the goal line. Wilhelm, who made the kick, was knocked out and Cincy was penalized fifteen yards for the smutty deed. Fuller made a sensational run around right end for 30 yards, but Kentucky was not able to make the distance in three downs and had to kick. Cincinnati tried to buck the line but was stopped without making any headway. Toward the last of the period the Bearcats staged an aerial attack which resulted in a 45 yard pass from Linneman to Myers, who after evading the Blue and White warriors, was finally stopped by Lavin who made a perfect tackle just as the ball was about to go over. With three yards to go the Bearcats bucked the line three times for their only tally. Linneman made the touchdown and attempted to kick goal but failed. The half ended with the score 6 to 0.

The Kentuckians played better ball the third quarter than any other period of the game. Server kicked off and the Cincinnati who caught the ball was downed in his tracks. The Crimsons attempted a punt which was blocked by Murphree and was recovered by Colpitts, within a few yards of Cincinnati's goal. On the third down Wilhelm, in his new position of fullback, plunged the line for a touchdown. This tied the score and "Big Jim" Server was called upon to kick the goal. Realizing that on his effort hinged the result of the game, the old war horse booted the oval through the goal posts and Kentucky had the long end of a 7 to 6 score.

GRIDIRON MENU

- KENTUCKY...60 S. P. U. 0
- KENTUCKY...31 MARYVILLE 0
- KENTUCKY... 0 MIAMI 14
- KENTUCKY... 6 SEWANEE... 6
- KENTUCKY 7; CINCINNATI 6
- KENTUCKY... 0 VANDERBILT 20.
- KENTUCKY vs. CENTRE NOVEMBER 13 AT LEXINGTON.
- KENTUCKY vs. TENNESSEE NOVEMBER 25 AT KNOXVILLE.

—slip on

One of our Overcoats and get that comfortable well-dressed feeling. They are priced to appeal to the man who has to make his dollar go the limit. Here you will find the latest models, weaves and patterns. Come in and be convinced of the coatability.

United Clothing Stores
INCORPORATED
A GOOD STORE TO KNOW
Next to Union Station
LOUIS POTTINGER, University Agent

A.&G. CAPS $3.00 to $6.00

The same distinction, the same style and the same nice attention to details that characterizes the other merchandise of—

Anderson & Gregory Men's Shop

Priced at figures that modestly represent their value—

"We Specialize in Men's Headwear"

ANDERSON & GREGORY

109 Limestone, North

LOOK FOR THE A. & G. SIGN

HEADGEAR — HABERDASHERY

THE Florsheim Shoe has that vitalizing quality about it which men call "personality." A "Style of the Times" is ready for you.

United Clothing Stores
INCORPORATED
116 EAST MAIN STREET
LEXINGTON, KENTUCKY.

BENCKART & FOTSCH, Proprietors. Eagle Barber Shop

107 SOUTH LIMESTONE STREET
First-Class Work Guaranteed

Opposite the Phoenix Hotel.
Lexington, Kentucky

WALTER S. WELSH

Successor to
WELSH & MURRAY PRINTING COMPANY
MONOGRAM STATIONERY, ENGRAVING AND DIE STAMPING.

FRAT AND DANCE PROGRAMS A SPECIALTY

124-128 N. Limestone Lexington, Kentucky

UNCLE CHARLIE

IS BACK AT A NEW PLACE — 529 SOUTH LIMESTONE

He Has no Successor. Come and See Him

Cincinnati was unable to overcome this lead of a single point though they fought desperately. They tried innumerable passes which did them no good until the last few minutes of play. Then they got over with two which placed the ball on Kentucky's twenty yard line. The Wildcats held like the rock of Gibraltar and Cincinnati was forced to surrender the ball to the Kentuckians, who had started on another march down the field when the final whistle blew. Thus was Kentucky avenged for the trouncing that the Ohlans handed her last year.

The playing of the Wildcats has improved a great deal since the last game they played here, but their interference is still poor. In the backfield Wilhelm ably took the place of Pribble and his punting was excellent. He tried one on-side kick, which was a success but the referee was asleep and gave the ball to Cincinnati. Fuller showed up well and made the most spectacular run for Kentucky as well as getting through the Crimson team and tackling behind their line. Shankline made several good gains through the line and around ends. Lavin, who took the place of Williams after the first ten minutes, was badly handicapped with a crippled shoulder, but he handled the team with excellent generalship.

To the line belongs the bulk of the credit for winning the game. They ploughed through the heavier line, made holes for the backs to get through, and held Cincy for downs time and again. Fest, as usual, was a conspicuous figure and played his customary stellar game. He seemed to be the life of the team and was in nearly every play. The two guards, Colpitts and Ramsey, were impregnable and had no trouble in holding their beefy opponents or knocking them out of the way. Murphree and Server covered themselves with glory and showed that they are All-Kentucky material. Heber played a good game at one end while Rice, who went in after Zerfoss failed to stop runs around end, played like a veteran and made a fine showing.

Lineups and Summary.

Kentucky	Pos.	Cincinnati
Zerfoss	L. E.	Nelson
Server	L. T.	Fries
Thompson	L. G.	Taylor
Fest	C.	Constable
Colpitts	R. G.	Glasgow
Murphree	R. T.	Selz
Heber	R. E.	Myers
Williams	Q.	Crolley
Fuller	R. H.	Palmer
Shanklin	L. H.	Linneman
Wilhelm	F. B.	Fratz

Officials—Marty, Kenyon, referee; Hinton, Yale, Umpire; Phillips, Vanderbilt, Headlinesman. Time of Quarters, 15 minutes.

Substitutions: Kentucky: Thornton for Fuller, Fuller for Thornton, Ramsey for Thompson, Rice for Zerfoss, Lavin for Williams; Cincinnati: Fitzgerald for Selz, Heindol for Taylor, Prather for Meyers.

Score by quarters:

Kentucky	0	0	7	0	7
Cincinnati	0	6	0	0	6

Judge Lafferty Back

Judge Lafferty, Dean of the College of Law resumed his work at the University yesterday after a serious illness. He has been suffering from a general breakdown and has been confined to his home for several weeks. During his convalescence he made two visits to the University and returned to take full charge of his classes.

HEAR SUPT. GEORGE COLVIN AT THE Y. M. C. A. SUNDAY NIGHT

TALK

The other day while I was talking to a boy I made some remark about Ibsen; he asked me if he was the guy who made Epsom salts. Have often thought it would be nice to be married but yesterday I passed a ragged couple much worse for wear and the thought dawned upon me that one can't buy a twelve dollar hat, that has been marked down from eighteen and is worth six, with love. That reminds me, once upon a time a little boy walked up to a man and asked him to buy a box of matches. "No, I don't need any matches." "Come on and buy some and I will introduce you to my sister." The man did, met the girl and got burnt on the matches. Alexander is in town; think I will go to the matinee, for women only. You know, plants and animals are related, not a doubt in the world about it, take snails and okra for instance. I guess Cox will be saying next, "I'd rather be right than president?" Harding will come out and say, "Look at me, I am both!" That's nerve all right but there is a bird who has it all over them; he actually painted the word SPUTZ on the front of a red fliver—in big white letters, too. Over at the house the other day a boy came up and glaced at the picture of two girls in a bathing suit, he remarked rather spontaneously, "Ye Gods, who are they, such legs, I have never seen before; look like the rear view of a camel." Even so will I protest. Hair is the best thing in the world for a bald head.

POETICAL, O, BOY!

Some girls do,
And some girls don't.
Some girls will,
And some girls won't —Eat spaghetti.

PROFESSOR MIKESSELL ADDRESSES FRESHMEN

Professor Mikesell, of the Department of English, gave a most interesting talk to the Freshmen at matriculation lecture, Saturday, November 6. "Extra Curricula" was the subject of his talk, in which he pointed out to the students how beneficial it is for them to engage in some work outside of their regular classroom studies. "Public Speaking," he said, "is a subject which is of great advantage to the student both while he is in college and after he has become a man of the world. The demand is greater than ever before," he said, "for men and women who can take part in a discussion and express themselves intelligently and convincingly; and a college man or woman is expected to be able to make a talk on almost any occasion." He went on to say that the ability to hold and entertain an audience will enable one to be at home in any environment. By no other means is one's personality so well developed. He concluded by urging the students to join one of the debating clubs or literary societies which are now extending the most cordial invitations to them to become members.

When it comes to feeling for the poor, first try your pockets.

A Little Love

What is it that love does to a woman?
Without it she only sleeps; with it, alone, she lives.—Ouida.

As love increases, prudence diminishes.—La Rochefoucauld.

If the heart of man is depressed with cares,
The mist is dispelled when a woman appears.

—Gal.

Oh, we fell out, I know not why,
And kissed again with tears.

—Tennyson.

Poor Girls.

Miss Simrall told us not to smoke,
Or listen to a naughty joke.

We don't.

At handsome men not to wink,
And never, never take a drink.

We don't.

We kiss no men, not even one.
In fact, we know not how it is done,
You may not think we have much fun.

WE DON'T.

Soph—I am going out to judge steers.

Parks—Who is he?

Mack Sennett is an authority on figures, but still he is a poor mathematician.

Sergeant York tells us that on the day of the signing of the armistice the girls in Paris went wild, threw their arms and kisses around, etc. When we asked him where he was that day he said that he stayed in the house.

MUHLENBERG COUNTY STUDENTS FORM CLUB

The students of Muhlenberg county met Friday evening and organized a Muhlenberg Club. The purpose of the club is to promote interest of the residents of Muhlenberg county in the University of Kentucky and to help and advise all prospective students of that county in picking out a college. In order to do this the club proposes to have a representative at the commencement of every high school in the county. Muhlenberg stands fifth in the number of students from the various counties at Kentucky. James Humphrey was unanimously chosen president of the club. The other officers were: vice president, Cordie Young; secretary-treasurer, William Nowlin; chairman of the publicity committee, J. C. Humphrey; chairman of the social and entertainment committee, William Roll.

Those present were: J. E. Humphrey, William Roll, Cordie Young, William Nowlin, J. R. Whitner, Herbert Boyd, T. B. Pannell, Ralph Lawton, Robert Tyldsley, Joe Fox, James W. Frazier, George Spurlin, J. C. Humphrey, Eblin Sparks, Reginald Countzler, Verona Spurlin, Raymond Felix, Gilbert E. Chandler, Earl P. Martin, Clifford Tate, Melvin Salesburg.

LEAVE YOUR FILMS FOR
KODAK FINISHING
IN BOOK STORE, MAIN BLDG.
ENLARGING

ANYTHING AND EVERYTHING FOR THANKSGIVING
Schange's Candy Kitchen
113-115 South Upper St.

PHONE 980
Victor Bogaert Company
LEADING JEWELERS
133-135 West Main Street
Established 1883 Lexington, Ky.

Matthew A. Mangione
Progressive Shoe Shop
140 S. LIMESTONE
Lexington, Kentucky.

ATTEND AN ACCREDITED
BUSINESS COLLEGE LIKE
THE SOUTHERN BROTHERS

Fugazzi School

W. B. MARTIN'S BARBER SHOP
Haircut40
Shave20
153 South Limestone St.
Lexington, Ky.

Fresh Home Made Candy—
Made Where You See It Made
Schange's Candy Kitchen
115-113 S. Upper Street

University Lunch Room

Wonderful Cakes For Late-Risers
Clean—Efficient—Courteous

JUSTRIGHT TAILORING APPEALS TO COLLEGE MEN—

There's snap and pep to the styles of our Tailored to Measure Suits and Overcoats at—

Justright Tailoring Co.
"WE FIT YOU"

Campus Togs

CLOTHES FOR COLLEGE MEN
—also—
SHOES, HATS, FURNISHINGS

Graddy-Ryan Company
(Incorporated)

SATISFACTION GUARANTEED—
Suits Pressed, 50c; Suits, Dry Cleaned and Pressed, $1.50
P. B. ROBARDS, College Men's Tailor.
152 South Limestone QUICK SERVICE Phone 1580-Y

LUIGART'S

CLOTHING AND HABERDASHERY

$15.00 Sweaters
$10.00

Phoenix Block
Lexington, Kentucky

HEAR SUPT. GEORGE COLVIN AT THE Y. M. C. A. SUNDAY NIGHT
Banana skins are the only skins in the world which can be used for slippers and not shoes.

SOCIETY

By Annie Louise Connor

PLEDGES

The following additional pledges have been announced:

Alpha Xi Delta

Elizabeth Guthrie, Mt. Sterling; Elva Mae Bennett, Paducah.

Alpha Gamma Delta

Kate Reddish, Lexington; Pauline Knox, Livermore; Margaret Short, Owensboro; Camille Davied, Cynthia.

Kappa Sigma

Wendell Smock, La Grange; Monroe Hall, Auburn.

Elliott-Carr.

The marriage of Jean Elizabeth Elliott, Humphrey, Ky., and John Goodwin Carr, Somerset, Ky., was solemnized Friday evening in Louisville. Both were students at the University.

The bride is a member of the Alpha Gamma Delta sorority and the bridegroom is a member of Sigma Chi fraternity. After a short wedding trip, the couple will make their home in Somerset.

Lexington Club.

The Lexington Club, whose membership is composed of all University students from Lexington and Fayette county, held its first meeting of the year in the Little Theatre Tuesday afternoon, November 9. The following officers for the ensuing year were elected: president, Albert Hukle, Arts '22; vice president, Laura Hubbard, Arts '23; secretary, Helen Rippeteo, Arts, '24; treasurer, Walter Morris, Arts, '22.

Fred Augsburg was appointed a committee of one to arrange for the annual dance which the club gives to the Seniors of Lexington Senior High School. It was decided that a social meeting would be held the first Wednesday in every month. The next meeting of the club will be held December 1.

The annual reception of new members into Ströblers was held Monday afternoon at White Hall. Fifty attended their first meeting and went away wearing the lavender and gold.

A short welcoming speech by Milton Revill, president of the organization, was followed by appropriate and interesting talks by Professors Grehan, Mikesell and Sax. The amusement was furnished by three neophytes, Lucy Smith, Troy Perkins and John Dundon. They presented a one-act comedy, "A Dear Little Wife."

President's Reception.

President and Mrs. McVey entertained with a reception Monday evening of the faculty and the students at their home in honor of the dents of the University.

The following girls assisted Mrs. McVey in entertaining: Margaret Bailey, Ella Brown, Martha Buckman, Katherine Christian, Margaret Cole, Irene Evans, Evelyn Friedman, Fannie Heller, Sarah Elizabeth King, Annie R. Moore, Marion McArthur, Lucille Moore, Bernice McClure, Martha Randall, Geneva Rice, Ilma Thorpe, Gertrude Wallingford, Katherine Weakley.

DEPARTMENTAL CLUBS

By Arthur L. Hodges

PATTERSON

The Patterson Literary Society was addressed last Friday night by Doctor Tutthill on the subject of organization. The subject was peculiarly appropriate, since the constitution of the society has been lost and the purpose of the meeting was for discussion of a new constitution. E. E. Siler read a constitution which he had drafted for the society to consider and as a foundation for the year's work. A committee was appointed to look up the old constitution, if it is possible to find it. Six new members were admitted to the society.

HORACE MANN

A program called "An Evening with Ornithologists," will be given at the meeting of the Literary Society, November 18. The works of three great ornithologists will be discussed as follows: John Burroughs, Clora Traylor; Alexander Stephens Wilson, Charles Hubbard; John J. Audubon, W. L. Moore. In addition to this program a reading will be given by Lucille Moore.

CLASSICAL CLUB

Doctor Tigert addressed the Classical Club in the Little Theatre last Wednesday night on the subject of the University at Oxford, England. His lecture, illustrated by a number of lantern slides, proved highly entertaining and instructive and was thoroughly enjoyed by all.

At the close of the lecture the club adjourned to the ladies' parlor, where refreshments, consisting of hot chocolate and cakes, were served by Elizabeth Ellis, the hostess for the evening.

BOTANY CLUB

Rafinesque Botany Club met Wednesday evening, November 3, in the Botany Lecture Room in White Hall. Martha Randall made a very interesting talk on "Corn and What We Do With It." George Gregory made a report on the Ecology Magazine. After the program a social hour was enjoyed.

The next meeting will be held Wednesday, November 17, at 8:15 p. m., in the lecture room. Everyone interested in botany is cordially invited.

MOUNTAIN CLUB

The Mountain Club was organized in chapel Tuesday afternoon. The following officers were elected for this year Moss Patterson, president; Bernice Young, vice president; Lula Blakey, secretary-treasurer. The next meeting will be held November 16 at 8:30 in chapel. All members should be present as important business will be transacted.

LOUISVILLE CLUB

The Louisville Club held the first of a series of joint social and business meetings in the Y. M. C. A. room Wednesday afternoon, November 3. Robt. J. Raible, president of the club, presided at the meeting. After a short business session, Harry Brailsford gave a number of selections on his banjo-guitar and Estella Kelsall played the piano. Various games were played and refreshments were served.

ENGLISH CLUB

The English Club will hold its regular monthly business and social meeting Monday evening, November 15, in the faculty dining room of the University Cafeteria. All members of the club who can come for supper are asked to meet in the dining room at 6 o'clock.

Parade Saturday

A parade, in which the entire University is invited and urged to take part, has been planned for the fifth hour Saturday morning. The girls are especially urged to get in this parade to help get up all the pep possible for the great Home Coming game with Centre.

HEAR SUPT. GEORGE COLVIN AT THE Y. M. C. A. SUNDAY NIGHT

TRIANGLE FRATERNITY—
Continued From Page 1.

following way: "We especially welcome a chapter at Kentucky whereby we shall have a chapter in each of five great states of the Middle West, representing five of its greatest educational institutions." It so happens that the requirements for membership are met to the letter here in all the Departments of the Engineering College, and all students in engineering, including Freshmen are eligible for membership.

Sixteen active members and one honorary member were initiated into Triangle Sunday morning. J. G. Morris of Marshall, Texas, who graduated from the University last spring and who was instrumental in the organization of the local, will be initiated when he returns to the University.

The following officers have been elected and installed: E. T. Cross, president; J. C. Morris, vice president; P. M. Perkinson, secretary; G. W. Benson, treasurer.

The membership is composed of the following men: J. E. Barnes, B. O. Bartee, E. L. Baulch, W. M. Baulch, N. O. Belt, W. G. Blades, F. W. Creedle, D. C. Howard, A. C. Smith, S. M. Spears, A. H. Voelcker, R. C. Wilson, J. E. Wilson.

— THE —

Phoenix Hotel

LEXINGTON, KENTUCKY

A Metropolitan Hotel, Completely Equipped, Respectfully Solicits the Patronage of University of Kentucky Faculty and Student Body.

CHARLES H. BERRYMAN
President

JOHN G. CRAMER
Manager

FLOWERS FOR ALL OCCASIONS

J. DONALD DINNING, Representative

PHONE 4085

CHRISTMAS CHEER

Our full line of Christmas Cards, Papers, Leather Goods, Seals, Tags, Novelties, Bibles, Diaries, Calendars, Desk Sets, Children's Books, etc., will be

READY FOR YOUR INSPECTION NOV. 10

Waterman and Shaffer Fountain Pens, Ever Sharp Pencils.
Send in your Christmas Card Orders now!

VEACH 120 North Upper Street VEACH
Between Main and Short

BLUE RIBBON SHOE REPAIR

137 South Limestone
American Shop

Ten Per Cent Discount to All Students Give Us a Trial

EVERY COLLEGE STUDENT

Entrance on Limestone

Needs a little recreation after a day of hard studying. A game of Pool after school hours will give you all the recreation you need— Play the game on the best tables; in the newest place and with the most refined surroundings. Use our slogan: "Meet me at the Academy"

GEO. E. JOHNSON, Manager.

THE BILLIARD ACADEMY

Over United Cigar Store