

Five Nominated for Prom Queen; 12 Are Candidates for May Queen

WOMEN'S LOSERS MEET TO HOLD INITIATION ON SATURDAY

W. S. G. A. NAMES MAJOR OFFICERS FOR COMING YEAR

The Junior Prom, to be held from 9 to 11 o'clock Friday night at the Alumni gymnasium, will be the annual frolic of the soon-to-be seniors on the university campus. The most important event of the evening will be the crowning of the queen of the Junior Prom.

Five university co-eds are nominees for queen of the prom. They are Anna May Lewis, Delta Delta Delta; Whitlock Pennell, Alpha Xi Delta; Mary King Montgomery, Kappa Kappa Gamma; Ayleneer Razer, Kappa Delta; and Lois Sulzenger, Alpha Delta Theta.

The members of the Junior class will receive their bids through the university post office today. There will be six no-breaks.

U. K. PROFESSORS TO READ PAPERS

Three Penners Have Been Prepared for Annual Meeting of Kentucky Academy of Science

Members of the experiment station staff and science departments who will attend the sessions will take an active part in the nineteenth annual meeting of the Kentucky Academy of Science next Saturday.

The Academy, which is affiliated with the American Association for the Advancement of Science, has over 200 members, all of whom are active workers in the field of science.

Three papers prepared by the Kentucky Experiment Station will be read before the biological science division.

In the afternoon session of the Academy two addresses will be given by Dr. Irvin Abell, the University of Louisville, a noted surgical authority, will speak on "Recent Contributions by Science to the Field of Medicine."

An old map of America recently has been presented to the university library. It was published at Nuremberg in 1746 by the first of Homann, well-known German map-makers of the 18th century.

The map, which is a copper-plate engraving, colored by hand, is a very good state of preservation and is interesting in its reflection of the general knowledge of that time in regard to the western hemisphere.

LOIS NEAL, ZETA TAU ALPHA, IS ELECTED PRESIDENT OF ASSOCIATION

CABINET INSTALLATION WILL TAKE PLACE MAY 1

Evelyn Grubbs, Emily Reeves, Betsie Prewitt, Are Other Officers

Lois Neal, junior in the College of Arts and Sciences, was chosen president of the Women's Self Government association in the annual election held Monday in the Administration building.

These officers chosen in the election, together with the newly-elected presidents of the sororities will constitute the Women's Self Government association for next year.

Evelyn Grubbs, vice-president, is a member of the College of Arts and Sciences and is a member of Alpha Gamma Delta, social sorority.

Emily Prewitt, secretary, is a sophomore in the College of Arts and Sciences. She is a member of the Women's Self Government association and a member of Chi Omega.

The treasurer, Betsie Prewitt, is a junior in the College of Arts and Sciences and a member of Alpha Gamma Delta, social sorority.

As town representative, Alice Bell McAllister, Lexington, and a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma, and as representative of the college on "The World Court," at 10 o'clock Thursday morning, at convocation in the law building.

In his address to students and the members of the Women's club of Central Kentucky and Lexington Optimist club, Sir Herbert explained that the great accomplishment of the League in its long struggle to palliate the hatreds and repair the damages of the World War, is that the 52 nations that have been represented in its councils and assemblies have learned the lesson that the League of Nations is a ray of hope that shines through the darkness of the world.

The high point in the history of the League and the most dramatic event was the signing of the League of Nations covenant in 1919. In his address to students and the members of the Women's club of Central Kentucky and Lexington Optimist club, Sir Herbert explained that the great accomplishment of the League in its long struggle to palliate the hatreds and repair the damages of the World War, is that the 52 nations that have been represented in its councils and assemblies have learned the lesson that the League of Nations is a ray of hope that shines through the darkness of the world.

Several university students attending the convocation of Sir Herbert on Saturday to compete for a $10 prize offered for the best written report of his speech.

his name unpublished, that is another matter and the confidence will not be violated.
During the recent Liberal club fracas numerous anonymous communications were received by The Kernel. The bulk of these were vicious and vituperative, and were most likely composed with the intention of causing embarrassment to the University upon the interested contentions without damage or injury to their authors who leered from behind the cowardly shield of an anonymous appellation.

ask us we'd say it is a bankroll and an automobile.
According to the president of the University of Southern California the word 'swell' is used to describe 4,972 situations. Well, maybe they're swell situations.
Hats off to the stewed-ent who said this would be a good school if only they didn't have to walk so far to the library to go to sleep.

To The Editor
The Kernel
Dear Sir:
Honorary fraternities at the University function but little. Aside from the interest advised at pledging time and the preparations incidental to initiation, honorary fraternity activity is dormant. Because of the peculiar situation at Kentucky where the social fraternity so completely dominates the activity field, these honorary groups have little or no function.

Exhibit To Include Sketch by Alumnae
A POSITIVE INDICATION OF MASS ATTITUDE toward the University of Kentucky is shown by the exhibit on the occasion of the annual convocation at the University of Kentucky, Lexington, Ky., which was held on Tuesday, April 19, 1932. The exhibit, which was arranged by the Alumnae Association, included a sketch by Miss Alice Salyers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Salyers, 112 Kentucky Avenue, Lexington, Ky., which was a very touching and beautiful drawing of the University of Kentucky, Lexington, Ky., as it appeared in 1900. The sketch was made by Miss Salyers while she was attending the University of California at Berkeley.

Esperanto Spoken By Workmen In Vienna Olympiad
In Vienna recently, according to the American Esperantist for March and April, the local committee of the Second Workers' Olympiad used Esperanto on a large scale and arranged for the services of the Esperanto labor organizations which met in the dissemination of information and in the enrollment of members. Eighty thousand workers from many different countries took part in this spot event. Workers especially appreciate Esperanto as they, least of all, have the opportunity to study even one foreign language, and the ease of Esperanto gives them an advantage over their more linguistic brethren.

OUR VAGRANT GUESTS
With the advent of spring and finer weather, there echos throughout the country the call of the open road. Travelers of every type, tourists, college students, idle workers, tramps, all become imbued with the spirit of wanderlust and begin their annual search for new sights and new localities. And among these spring wanderers it is almost a certainty that there will be some of the vagrant and thieving class.

Literary
The Kernel is interested in getting representative literature from the student body. The Literary Editor would appreciate poetic contributions, which should be addressed to him, in care of The Kernel.

AMEN BROTHER
Dear Sir:
As Bart Peak has so often suggested, the Kernel really needs some religion. Why not include in each edition some words of Christian cheer? Many of us would like to learn some little prayer—some expression of devotion. We are not all so Godless as the impression which one would receive by reading a copy of the Kernel.

ROAMIN' THE RIALTO
Arrowsmith
With Roland Colman and Helen Hayes continues until Thursday at the Ben Ali Theatre, when there will be presented "The Expert," featuring Chic Sale and Dickie Moore. The picture is a sequel to the story "Old Man Minick," written by Edna Ferber. Sale and Moore appear again in virtually the same characterizations they had in "The Star Witness. Sale is the lovable old grandpa who goes about in his middle-aged man's high top hat, but only succeeding in getting in the way. Moore plays the part of the orphan girl of the senior high school who they present many humorous scenes, but right to the end of the picture she will need the aid of the more serious drama of this extremely fine bit of entertainment.

GRADUATE WRITES ARTICLE
An article by Katherine Best, a graduate of the University, and a member of Alpha Sigma Gamma, appears in the current edition of JUMP, a national publication. The article is entitled "Spring Fever," and appears on page 10. Miss Best is in New York, where she is the student in the space race. Recently she has had other articles accepted by Life and the Saturday Evening Post.

SO HELP ME HORRATO!
(NSFA)—A questionnaire circulated by a professor in an eastern University recently revealed some interesting information. One student said that True Story was a sickening magazine, while another defined it as "the co-ed's bible." Big Bill Thompson was classified by one student as a Chicago racketeer, while Joseph Stalin was identified as President Hoover's secretary. And on top of all this it was found that The Saturday Evening Post was the favorite magazine of the majority. The average number of questions answered correctly was 78.3 per cent.

SIR HERBERT AMES
More and more widespread is becoming the interest in international relations, among townspeople as well as the students. For months University students have been studying in their classes and reading in their clubs, until it has become a question of almost universal interest on the campus. Climaxing this interest came Sir Herbert Ames, representing the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace, giving students the opportunity to hear international problems discussed by one who is an outstanding authority.

DOES AND ANTI-DOES
By CRAIG VAN DRUTEN
Poor old SAE's "Their enrollments" is falling off. The Herald for March 13 reveal the names of 43 active members attending the chapter's recent dinner. The university scholarship reports released last week indicate a severe decrease in membership. The names are listed. Depression or discretion?

THE SILVER LINING
The "Silver Lining" will continue through next Tuesday at the Strand and will be followed by "Play Girl," which stars Lonny Young. The story, written by Maurine Watkins, was adopted and dialogued by Maude Fulton. The plot reveals the life of a girl who plans a business career and financial independence in preference to the conventional life that she expected it to be. However, she marries a gambler and her life becomes just the reverse of what she expected it to be. The picture is a sequel to the story "Old Man Minick," written by Edna Ferber. Sale and Moore appear again in virtually the same characterizations they had in "The Star Witness. Sale is the lovable old grandpa who goes about in his middle-aged man's high top hat, but only succeeding in getting in the way. DEAN HOLMES TO VISIT PARIS
Mrs. Sarah B. Holmes, assistant dean of women, will address the girls of the senior high school at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning. Her subject will be "Choosing Your Studies and Campus Program in College."

She prefers A PIPE (For you)
HER name is Ruth. She's a popular co-ed on a famous campus. Yes, she'll have a cigarette, thank you (and smoke it very prettily). But for you she likes a pipe.
That's one smoke that's still a man's smoke. (And that's why she likes to see you smoke.)
There's something companionable about a pipe. Friendly, cool, mellow. . . . It clears your mind, puts a keen edge on your thinking.
And you sound the depths of true satisfaction when you fill up its bowl with Edgeworth.
There, men, is a REAL smoke. Choice mellow burleys, cut especially for pipes blended for the man who knows his fine tobacco. It's cool, dry, satisfying—and you'll find it first in sales, first choice of smokers, in 42 out of 54 leading colleges.
We'd like nothing better than to drop in tonight and toss our own private tin across your study table. But since that can't be, just remember—YOUR smoke—A PIPE!
Edgeworth at your dealer's—or send for free sample kit to: Address Lorus & Bro. Co., 105 S. 22d St., Richmond, Va.

ANONYMOUS CONTRIBUTIONS
From time to time The Kernel receives communications from students and from faculty members. Most of these are thoughtfully and purposefully composed with the intention of expressing the writer's views upon some subject relative to university or student activities; others give vent to personal prejudices which inevitably appear in college life. The Kernel does not agree in many instances with the sentiments expressed in these letters; nevertheless, it feels that in the majority of cases the sentiments are true ones and in being published as such help fulfill the functions of The Kernel as an official student organ.
