

Lexington, Ky., Sept. 1st 1887

My Dear Mr. Clay,

I return you enclosed the copy you gave me of Mrs. Lucretia Clay's will. My best judgment is that under its provisions the New York City medal was the absolute property of your late husband as the survivor of the three brothers; consequently that the medal passed to you under the provision of his will.

Very Respectfully

J. D. Hunt