BULLETIN SENT OUT BY COLLEGE

Agriculture Outlook for 1933 For Kentucky Is General Theme of Publication

The Bulletin on the Agricultural Outlook for Kentucky for the year 1933 has just been published and is being distributed.

The purpose and value of this bulletin is summed up very well by Dean Thomas P. Cooper. He states, "It is the purpose of the staff of the Experiment Station to bring together and interpret, annually, all available information on the important farm products of the state.

"Certain features of the outlook are emphasized. Comprehensive, economical production, the elimination of unprofitable breeding animals, the growing of legumes, peaches and apples.

- 3—All poems and stories must be original.
- 4—Entries must be turned in to Prof. Grant C. Knight, on or before the second Monday in April.

McVey Nullifies Council's Action On Senior Rings

"Has No Authority in Class Affairs," Insists the President

"The Men's Student Council has no authority in class affairs" was the statement of President McVey made yesterday to Russell Grey, president of the Senior class in regard to the council's recent vote on the purchasing of rings by the various fraternities and sororities of the campus.

"The president's statement nullifies the council's action," said Grey Monday. "Of course, there is no way that seniors may be forced to buy rings only from the company selected by the ring committee, but as this committee is appointed for the purpose of selecting the company who best can serve the students, the seniors are honor bound to buy from the company selected by the committee."

Each year it is the custom of the senior class president to appoint a ring committee to select the firm from which to purchase the rings. This year the committee accepted the bid of Peters and company, who underbid L. G. Balfour, a competitive firm.

However, some organizations stated that Balfour was their official supplier, and such a claim, made from no other concern, Grey, who is a member of the Council, submitted the situation to the vote which passed 4 to 3 in favor of allowing those fraternities to purchase from the Balfour firm. It is concerning this matter that President McVey made his statement last week.

NEW TRUSTEES
The action of Governor Laffoon in appointing such competent men to fill the five vacancies on the University Board of Trustees is commendable.

Probably from an employment standpoint, in the history of the school there has never been a more unpromising year to be graduated.

The Board of Trustees performs the executive work of the University. In appointing men of the calibre of the new members, Governor Laffoon has done the people of Kentucky a real service.

It is probable that the Board will hold a meeting in the very near future to discuss questions that are pertinent and demand attention.

FRESHMAN TESTS
Freshmen who registered at the beginning of the second semester, following the usual practice, took classification tests prepared by the psychology department.

From past surveys the tests have shown that there has been a tendency toward a high correlation between intelligence and success in college courses.

The psychology department, in performing this service for the University, has proved that psychology is not a mere theoretical science, but has practical applications which can be of benefit to society.

STUDENTS AND OTHER STUDENTS
NOTE: For the most part, students do not know the exact meaning of the diversified types of registered students and the names applied to these various classes of persons pursuing higher education in the University.

Headline—Men's Council Seeks Revision of Constitution. Well, that's a retreat from the usual thing. At least we don't have to listen to the 3.2 per cent beer snail.

Definition of marriage—An enterprise undertaken by two persons of opposite sexes, absolutely no good to anyone except a couple's mother-in-laws.

Annual Military Ball held in the Men's gym. Dean Melcher opposed a fraternal request to hold a buffet supper for newly-woods on the grounds that such an entertainment would encourage student marriages.

conducted by JANE ANN MATTHEWS

The Kernel, in collaborating with Chi Delta Phi, now is offering a monthly prize of two dollars for the best poem published in this column.

Poems published in this column will be selected by the literary editor with the assistance of a student committee.

The award is being made by Chi Delta Phi and Prof. Enoch Grehan, head of the department of Journalism, Searcy Hall.

Below are two Valentine poems contributed by students:

Somebody sent me a big red heart All fringed in white to me, And it was a lovely wreath.

That red, "O, won't you be— Somebody sent this Valentine In hopes that I might see; Somebody has a big red heart, And it is meant for me.

YOU WENT AWAY
You went away
And left me all alone,
In your heart
Made of stone?
You have found
Some new, appealing song—
Do you suppose
That I will tag along
To prove my love is infinite
And profier it?
Because, you say, there is no wrong
About that youth
You are so fond of?
Yes, I am in love—
You went away.

Howard Defeats Braden To Win In Net Tournament
After a delay of approximately three months, the tennis Round Robin started last fall and stopped by the advent of bad weather conditions, was brought to a conclusion last Thursday afternoon when Turner Howard defeated Don Braden 7-5, 6-4, in the gym annex.

The tournament, an annual affair sponsored by Dr. H. H. Downing, coach of the varsity tennis team, was started by approximately 30 contestants. Since it took a considerable amount of time for the matches to be arranged and played off, by the time the finalists were reached the outdoor courts were in no condition to be played upon. And as both finalists were members of the Varsity tennis squad, it was agreed that the tournament should be finished on the indoor court when regular practice had begun.

Last year Don Braden won the cup offered by Coach Downing, and was defending his title when Turner Howard took him into camp in two fast, hard-fought games.
The Delta Rho chapter of Delta Delta Delta is entertaining with a formal dance in the ball room of the Lafayette hotel the night of February 18. Music will be furnished by Louis Davis orchestra of Ashland.

U. K. KITTENS TO MEET EASTERN WEDNESDAY
When the Kitten basketball team travel to Richmond Wednesday night, to meet the Eastern State Teachers freshman squad, they will be seeking revenge for the only defeat they have received this year.
Coach Miller will probably start his regular lineup with Jerome and Esch at forwards, Lewis at center, and Anderson and either Sam Potter or Arnall at the guard posts. This is the same team that clicked so well against the Red Devils last Friday night, and if they show the same form tomorrow night, they should be the favorite to win. The game will start about 8 o'clock. The following men will make the trip: Jerome, Esch, Lewis, Potter, Anderson, Arnall, Dickens, Edwards, Mester, Hershfield, and Spicer.

MUSICAL PROGRAM WILL FEATURE Y.W.C.A. VESTERS
Eva May Nunnally will be the leader for the first of the current series of Y. W. C. A. weekly vester programs at 7 o'clock tonight, in the Patterson hall recreation room. A musical program will be presented at this time. Included on the program will be Mary Louise McKenna, Ann Gooodykott, Martha Pugh, and Mary Souler. All women students of the University are cordially invited to attend.

CASUAL OBSERVATIONS
By THE KEYHOLER
Headline in a sizeable weekly paper: "Only Six Pass Exam Taken By 58 Applicants." What caused that? Probably it was after effects of a strenuous Christmas holiday season. That's possible, because said exam was given within 34 days after Christmas.
A sports head using a new con- version of the word "tourney" was discovered by The Keyholer. This new coinage is "turney." What can be "turneyed" in a basketball tournament? Write your own answer.

CASUAL OBSERVATIONS
The papers may be left about the houses of subscribers until the following edition is delivered to them, but The Key is often saved as a souvenir of college days and is allowed to be read by large numbers of people. Isn't that getting your money's worth from an ad in said book?
The Kampus Kat guarantees absolute satisfaction with each ad. They are well written, clearly printed, well balanced in each space. Their carrier is not a local publication; it goes all over the state. It could have been made a monthly publication if the advertisers had responded, but they refused and are continuing to do just that. What's wrong? The book, its style, staff, and contents? Or does the error exist in those advertisers who refuse to contract for space there-in?
She was only an optician's daughter but she sure was some spectacle to watch.
Richest question of the week: "Who really did serenade the girl's dorms the other night?"

Valentine Party
Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Jenkins entertained with a valentine party at their home in Hilltop park on Saturday night.
The house was decorated very appropriately in valentine decorations. The guests included: Misses Myrtle Polk, Margaret Dwyer, Marion Pinney, Mary Agnes Brend, Mrs. E. Mattingly, Mrs. John Hart, Elliot Sydney, Forest Sale, Crosby Bean, John Mattingly, Elmer Mattingly, and Ted Voll.
Engagement Announced
Mrs. Jessie K. Lake announces the engagement and coming marriage of her daughter Myra Allan, to Mr. Cecil Eugene Van Doren, Cincinnati.
The ceremony will take place at 4 o'clock Thursday afternoon at the Methodist Christian Church, Rev. Hayes Farish officiating.
Miss Florence Bell will act as bridemaid.
Mr. Hugh Adams, groom's best man.
Yesterday the bride-elect was the guest of honor at a luncheon given by Mrs. Elwood Goode at the Wellington Arms Tea room.
This afternoon the bride-elect will be entertained at a bridge party at the Alpha chapter of Alpha Delta Theta of Transylvania college.

Mothers' Club Meets
The mothers of Alpha Delta Theta met at 7 o'clock yesterday afternoon at the chapter house on South Limestone for their regular monthly meeting.
The meeting was called to order and directed by the president, Mrs. H. C. Robinson. Mr. Anderson Brown, house mother of the active chapter, assisted at the social hour that followed.

Founders Day Banquet
Epsilon Phi Zeta of Lambda Chi Alpha held its Founder's Day Banquet last Sunday night at Teacup Inn.
The fraternity colors were carried out in the floral decorations. Mr. Joseph O'Har was toastmaster for the occasion.
The speakers on the program were Mr. Joseph O'Har, Mr. Anderson Brown, house mother of the active chapter, assisted at the social hour that followed.

Installation of Officers
Lambda Chi Alpha recently installed their new officers.
Those installed were Curt Howard, High Alpha; J. B. Croft, High Beta; Ralph Salyers, High Gamma; Harry Scott, High Tau; James Dutton, Assistant High Tau; George Farris, High Epsilon; Herman Wyatt, High Phi, and Dr. McFarland, High Pi.

ILLUSION:
Right before your very eyes the man of magic draws rabbits, vegetables, flowers, fruits—even babies—all from an empty tub! What an astonishing fellow he is!

EXPLANATION:
The assorted rabbits, babies, carrots, cabbages, ribbons and other magical "props" are not created by magic. The tub has a false bottom that is conveniently displaced, and numberless wonderful things spring to life in the magician's nimble fingers. They do literally "spring" because they are made to compress into the bottom of the tub, taking their natural shape as the magician lifts them out.

IT'S FUN TO BE FOOLED

...IT'S MORE FUN TO KNOW

Tricks are legitimate on the stage but not in business. Here's one that has been used in cigarette advertising... the illusion that blending is everything in a cigarette.

EXPLANATION: Blending is important... but it makes a lot of difference what is blended.
Inferior tobaccos can be blended to cover up their humble origin. But your taste soon detects the trick.
The proper use of blending is to bring out the full "round" flavor of mild, high-grade tobaccos. It's the costliness of the tobaccos, as well as the blending, that counts.

It is a fact, well known by leaf tobacco experts, that Camels are made from finer, MORE EXPENSIVE tobaccos than any other popular brand.

Hundreds of thousands of dollars have been spent by others in the attempt to discover just how Camels are blended. The blend is important.
But all the while Camel spends millions more for choice tobaccos... to insure your enjoyment.
Light up a Camel. Relax, while the delicate blue smoke floats about you. Enjoy to the full the pleasure that comes from costlier tobaccos.
Keep Camels always handy... in the air-tight, welded Humidor Pack.

Monday afternoon in the Lexington Leader there appeared a discussion of Kentucky's possibilities in this year's basketball tournament. Brownie Leach, sports editor of the Leader, is the author of the discussion which appears in his Down In Front column. As the time is ripe I am taking this opportunity to discuss, using some of his ideas. Just as Downie wonders, so do we—all just how far will the Wildcats go this season?

As is the custom in the great southland, Kentucky is the ranking As to the custom in the great southland, Kentucky is the ranking edge, but Worthington and Bronston, at times, did some of the best work anyone wants to see. Which ever team you think the better, you must admit it would be a great ball game if the two were to meet in top form.

Down In Front says it looks like a 50-50 shot for the Wildcats to come out of the tournament with the crown. It looks better than that to me. Mr. Leach must be judging from past tournaments; it is well to forget the old tournaments for the new.

Perhaps the most interesting thing in Monday's column was the comparison of this year's team with the first tournament team Rupp developed here at Kentucky. He came here and faced a tough schedule with poor material. He wound up his season runner-up to Maryland for the championship after a thrilling second-half fight.

Brownie says, "In my opinion the first team coached by Rupp was the best quintet for tournament play that the former Kansas star has directed here. And despite the fact that both last year's and this season's quintet hold offensive records. I doubt if either the 1931-32 or 1932-33 teams could defeat the first five of Coach Rupp's. There are many, including Coach Rupp himself, who disagree with this opinion.

"Rupp's first Kentucky team, you recall, included 'Little' McGinnis and Carey Spicer at forward, George Yates at center, and Charles Worthington and Jake Bronston at guard. Ellis Johnson played much of the season at guard, but did not go to the tournament.

"Comparing the players of that first team and this season's, start with the centers. In ability to score, Sale holds a wide margin over Yates, but the latter is a better floor man, especially defensively. For instance, recall the Kentucky-Ohio game and how each of these men played against Hosket.

"McGinnis and Spicer vs. Darby and DeMosey. Few Kentucky players have ever equalled the scrap of 'Little Mac,' and in his last tournament the diminutive Kentuckian topped all scorers. When DeMosey is 'hot' Sale and the others can't touch him for scoring, but he's not 'hot' often, played, and Spicer, in my opinion, played the better floor game.

"Comparing the guard positions is a tough proposition. In fact, comparing the two teams is hard and after all means nothing, for what we are now interested in is how far this season's club will go in the tournament.

"Over the entire season's play, this year's guards probably have the

WILDCATS DOWN GEORGIA TECH 45-22

By JOE QUINN
Coach Adelbert Rupp's powerful Wildcats basketeers had little difficulty disposing of Georgia Tech's Yellow Jackets 45-22, Saturday night in the Alumni gym, although the visitors had probably the strongest team to show here this season with the exception of Ohio State.

Tech was unable to utilize its slow-breaking offense against the close guarding of the 'Cats and was forced to rely mainly on Orr's twist shot and tries from beyond the foul stripe.

Darby opened the scoring in the first period when he made a free throw good and a moment later added a field goal. DeMosey batted in a shot from under the hoop and Sale counted with a crisp before the Jackets could organize a defense. The Blue attack showed up at this period and neither team was able to score for several minutes. Orr pivoted away from his guard and twisted to count twice for the only Tech field goals of the half. Sale and DeMosey made shots bring the score to 16-7 at the intermission.

The visitors rallied at the opening of the second half but after their spur still trailed by six points. Woodall, Tech sophomore, made two long shots from the side before he was banished on personal fouls. At this point the 'Cats turned on power and counted with four goals in less than two minutes. Then, Rupp replaced his varsity with reserves who continued to cause the Techmen trouble. Ellis Johnson, who was the only regular left in the game, gave the fans a final thrill when he dribbled almost to the center of the floor and let go with a beautiful shot which cut the cords cleanly just a second before the gun sounded. It was the longest shot made this season and one of the longest ever recorded in the Alumni gym.

Orr, six-foot-five Georgia-Tech center, who was the only man who could penetrate the 'Cat defense, made all of his baskets with a twist shot similar to that popularized by 'Frenchy' DeMosey; Woodall displayed a nice eye for the hoop on the few occasions he had halfback, played a good floor game for the losers.

Captain 'Aggie' Sale led the scorers for the night with 19 points and Orr was runner-up with 12.

'Little' Davis besides scoring three field goals, held his man to one field goal, and Ellis Johnson played his usual steady game at guard. The lineups and summary:

Kentucky (45)..... (22) Ga. Tech Darby (1)..... (6) Gooding DeMosey (8)..... (4) Woodall Sale (19)..... (12) Orr Johnson (3)..... (2) Poole Davis (6)..... (2) McArthur Substitutions—Kentucky: Yates, Kreuter (2), Tucker, Lawrence, Tech: Slocum, Glenn, Katz.

First Night Showing At Guignol Is Success

(Continued from Page One) man, and blunders realistically. But we continue to remember him as Lieutenant Osborne in 'Journey's End.'

Minna Bloomfield seems too sweet to play her part. There may be a reason. She appears too much of the faithful and clinging type to run off with another man. Perhaps that's why she got the part. And there are times when her personality and the appearance, but not the experience. His diction will improve.

Marjorie Powell provides excellent atmosphere as the voiceless, demure girl. Margaret Furr plays the unobtrusive maid, and manages to remain unobtrusive, as so few amateur maids do.

The setting fits the play, and makes the scene a real show place. There is even a glimpse of a cedar lined terrace.

6. Drawing for places will take place at 12 o'clock Wednesday, February 15, in the office of the Dean of Women. Each group will send a representative at this time.

7. The contest will begin promptly at 7:30 p. m. Any group arriving later will be eliminated from the sing.

8. The loving cup awarded to the winning group is presented by Cwens, honorary leadership fraternity for sophomore women, sponsors of the contest.

9. Titles of the selections to be used must be turned in to the sponsors at the time of meeting on Wednesday. All announcing will be done by those in charge, and no members of the groups will speak while appearing on the stage.

The rules for the men's sing are: 1. The sing is open to one group from 12 to 24 men.

2. Each chorus shall consist of from 12 to 24 men.

3. Each fraternity shall sing one verse and the chorus of any two of their songs. Dormitory groups may sing any two school songs. There will be no encores. All of the groups together will sing the first and last verses of 'Hall Kentucky' at the close of the contest.

Words for 'Hall Kentucky' and suggestions with regard to the rendition of the song may be had from Prof. Carl Lampert, head of the music department.

5. Competent judges will be brought from out of the city.

6. The winning chorus will receive a handsome silver loving cup from Nu Circle of Omicron Delta Kappa and will be invited to sing over the radio from the University remote control station of WHAS.

Engineers' Society To Hold Steak Fry

The Dicker Engineering society will entertain the freshmen engineers and their guests with a steak fry the latter part of this month.

The party will take place in Dicker Hall. The exact date of this entertainment will be decided upon at the next meeting of this club which will be held at 10 a.m. next Wednesday, according to Jack Dicker, founder of this society.

The officers of the society are as follows: Mr. D. L. Arnold, president; Mr. W. L. Scott, vice-president; and Mr. R. E. Orr, secretary-treasurer.

RED DEVILS FALL BEFORE FROSH ONSLAUGHT

Playing the best brand of basketball the Red Devils, a semi-pro team, the Kitten Cagers ran roughshod over the Red Devils of Central City, 60-26, Friday night in the Alumni gym. In a preliminary game, the varsity 'B' team downed the Athens Independents, 34-21.

The Red Devils, a semi-pro team, came here with an excellent record but could not get started against the best defensive work of the yearlings.

The Frosh started fast and with shots by Jerome and Lewis and a foul try by Esch, scored seven points in the first minute. The same players added six more points before the Devils could count on Coffman's shot from the side. The Millermen continued their assault on the hoop and were far in the lead at half-time, 35-13.

It was the same story in the second half. The Kitten returned after the intermission and scored freely on the seemingly bewildered Frosh. Coach Miller inserted most of reserve material soon after the period started and the more than held their own with the Devils. Arnall and Mester accounted for 11 points between them in the time they were in the contest.

The whole team played great ball with 'Skip' Jerome and Garland Lewis trying for top scoring honors with 16 points each. Eddie Esch garnered 10 field goals and a foul for 11 markers, besides playing a great floor game. Anderson and Sam Potter played their usual good game; Potter accounted for six points in the first half.

Coffman, who collected 14 points, was the only devil player who could elude the Kitten's close guarding. The Varsity 'B' squad made it an All Kentucky night by beating the strong Athens quintet in the prelin. The 'B' team showed plenty of power and some accurate shots in Tucker, Settle and Blair. 'Little' McGinnis, former Wildcat ace, was best for the losers.

Along comes the bright fellow who suggests infating our currency. The idea may be a good one.

DIRECTORIES TO MAKE EARLY APPEARANCE

The publication of the new Student Directory is expected to take place in a short time, according to an announcement made by Jimmy Shropshire.

The necessary information is being compiled at the Registrar's office, and as soon as it is available it will be assembled and published. The work is being done on the Kernel press.

Treydel plebette Judy Chadwick can't get along with foreigners, or maybe, it is the other way around. Judy was talking, via telephone, with a Chinese student. The conversation was proceeding rather unintelligently but nicely until the Easterner sneezed.

And, eyebrowed Judy, 'What was that you said?'

Famous last words—'Well, you see the snow was so deep that we couldn't get in any earlier.'

LOST—A brown purse, either in Library or on campus. Please return to Kernel business office. Liberal reward.
