April 13, 1915

Faculty met in accordance with motion for adjournment of April 12 with the following members present:-

President Barker, Profs. Melcher, Noe, D. Terrell, Mathews, Miller, Underwood, Gilbert, Pryor, Freeman, Hooper, Lafferty, Grehan, Zembrod, Norwood, Baker, Weaver, Dantzler, Jones, Farquhar, Davis, Killebrew, Frankel, Webb, Boyd.

The following men who were mentioned by the Committee on Discipline, in their report of April 12", were present and were questioned: C. B. Elston, A. G. Craig, J. H. Moore, N. N. Terry, G. F. Reddish, G. B. Nance, Carter Clark, J. P. Ricketts, R. C. Scott.

A stenographic record was made of the examination. It developed that Messrs. Elston, Craig, Moore, Terry, Reddish and Nance participated in the hazing of Chapman last year. After a thorough discussion of the Discipline Committee's report, in the light of the evidence brought out before the Faculty, it was moved by Professor Melcher and seconded by Professor Weaver, that those men who were in the Chapman hazing of last year, be suspended for the rest of this semester and that the other men be denied the privileges of the dormitory and be put on probation. The motion was carried.

Upon motion by Prof. Frankel and seconded by Dr. Pryor, Faculty adjourned.
