My information as to the 5.20 U.S. Stock had led me to expect that I had only to send the Coupons through a Banker to London to have them cashed. I find that the U.S. government have no Agent in London & that the Coupons had to be sent to New York & remitted there by bill so that it was only this month I received ^{for} the Nov.

May one - The British Bank Co. Agent here sent them to London & the Agent there I rather think to Kings Son
- Is there any probability of the 1862 Bonds being paid this year - If so what would be the best way of having them presented
- Must they be sent out or with the Notarial Certificate in S. J. Kings Son be sufficient.

The winter here as with you has been one of unusual severity. Thank God we have been preserved in health though many around us have been removed
