

nesseth in every city, saving that bonds c and afflictions l abide me.

24 But none d of these things move me, neither count I my life dear unto myself, so that I might finish e my course with joy, and the ministry, f which I have received g of the Lord Jesus, to testify the gospel of the grace of God.

25 And now, behold, I know that ye all, among whom I have gone preaching the kingdom of God, shall see my face no more.

26 Wherefore I take you to record this day, that I am pure h from the blood of all men.

27 For I have not shunned to declare unto you all the counsel i of God.

28 ¶ Take heed k therefore unto yourselves, and to all the flock, over the which the Holy Ghost hath made you l overseers, to feed the church m of God, which he hath purchased n with his own blood.

29 For I know this, that after my departing shall grievous wolves o enter in among you, not sparing p the flock.

30 Also of your q own selves shall men arise, speaking perverse things, to draw away disciples after them.

31 Therefore watch, r and remember, that by the space of three years I ceased not to warn s every one night and day with tears.

32 And now, brethren, I commend you to God, and to the word of his grace, which is able t to build you up, and to give you an inheritance u among all them which are sanctified.

33 I v have coveted no man's silver, or gold, or apparel.

34 Yea, ye yourselves w know, that these hands have ministered unto my necessities, and to them that were with me.

35 I have showed you all things, how that so labouring ye ought to support x the weak, and to remember the words of the Lord Jesus, how he said, It y is more blessed to give than to receive.

36 ¶ And when he had thus spoken, he kneeled z down, and prayed with them all.

37 And they all wept sore, and fell a on Paul's neck, and kissed him.

38 Sorrowing most of all for the words b which he spake, that they should see his face no more. And they accompanied him unto the ship.

CHAPTER XXI.

1 Paul, journeying to Jerusalem, cometh to Philip's house, whose daughters prophesied. 17 Paul, at Jerusalem, 27 is apprehended, 31 but rescued by the chief captain.

AND it came to pass, that after we were gotten from them, and had launched, we came with a straight course unto Coos, and the day following unto Rhodes, and from thence unto Patara:

2 And finding a ship sailing over unto Phenicia, we went aboard, and set forth.

3 Now when we had discovered Cyprus, we left it on the left hand, and sailed into Syria, and landed at Tyre: for there the ship was to unlade her burden.

4 And finding disciples, we tarried there seven days: who said a to Paul through the Spirit, that he should not go up to Jerusalem.

5 And when we had accomplished those days, we departed and went our way; and they all brought us on our way; with wives and children, till we were out of the city: and we kneeled b down on the shore, and prayed.

6 And when we had taken our leave one of another, we took ship; and they returned home again.

7 And when we had finished our course from Tyre, we came to Ptolemais, and saluted the brethren, and abode with them one day.

8 And the next day, we that were of Paul's company departed, and came unto Cesarea; and we entered into the house of Philip c the evangelist, d (which was one of the seven;) e and abode with him.

9 And the same man had four daughters, virgins, which f did prophesy.

10 And as we tarried there many days, there came down from Judea a certain prophet, named Agabus, g

11 And when he was come unto us, he took Paul's girdle, and bound his own hands and feet, and said, Thus saith the Holy Ghost, So shall h the Jews at Jerusalem bind the man that owneth this girdle, and shall deliver i him into the hands of the Gentiles.

12 And when we heard these things, both we, and they of that place, besought j him not to go up to Jerusalem.

13 Then Paul answered, What mean ye to weep and to break mine heart k for I am ready l and not to be bound only, but also to die at Jerusalem for the name of the Lord Jesus.

14 And when he would not be persuaded, we ceased, saying, The will m of the Lord be done.

15 And after those days we took up our carriages, and went up to Jerusalem.

16 There went with us also cer-
