

and so that day come upon you unawares.

35 For f as a snare shall it come on all them that dwell on the face of the whole earth.

36 Watch g ye therefore, and pray always, that ye may be accounted h worthy to escape all these things that shall come to pass, and to stand before k the Son of man.

37 And in the day-time he was teaching in the temple; and at night he went out, and abode in the mount l that is called the mount of Olives.

38 And all the people came early in the morning to him in the temple, for to hear him.

CHAPTER XXII.

1 The Jews conspire against Christ : 3 Satan prepareth Judas to betray him.

NOW a the feast of unleavened bread drew nigh, which is called the passover.

2 And b the chief priests and scribes sought how they might kill him; for they feared the people.

3 ¶ Then c entered Satan into Judas surnamed Iscariot, being of the number of the twelve.

4 And he went his way, and communed with the chief priests and captains, how he might betray him unto them.

5 And they were glad and covenanted d to give him money.

6 And he promised, and sought opportunity to betray him unto them 1 in the absence of the multitude.

7 ¶ Then came the day e of unleavened bread, when the passover must be killed.

8 And he sent Peter and John, saying, Go and prepare us the passover, that we may eat.

9 And they said unto him, Where wilt thou that we prepare?

10 And he said unto them, Behold, when ye are entered into the city, there shall a man meet you, bearing a pitcher of water; follow him into the house where he entereth in.

11 And ye shall say unto the good-man of the house, The Master saith unto thee, Where is the guest-chamber, where I shall eat the passover with my disciples?

12 And he shall show you a large upper room furnished: there make ready.

13 And they went, and found as he had said unto them: and they made ready the passover.

14 And f when the hour was come, he sat down, and the twelve apostles with him.

15 And he said unto them, 2 With
