

Edmund Claxton,
George Remsen,
C. C. Haffelfinger.

CLAXTON, REMSEN & HAFFELFINGER,

Publishers, Booksellers and Stationers,

Nos. 819 and 821 MARKET STREET,

Philadelphia, Dec 19th 1870.

Mr. Ross Vertner Lippiz
Lexington Ky

Dear Madame

The writer promised to answer the numerous questions asked in your favor 9th inst when he wrote you on the 15th but a severe attack of Rheumatism prevented him from fulfilling his promise. In answer to the question Do we intend putting the book in the trade. We would say that when we promised to do all we could for the success of the book we could not make it known without doing so and have up to the time sent it to the trade in Lexington and Louisville the only points from which we have received positive orders. We have sent sample copies to nearly all of the principal cities of the South among which we would name Paducah Ky. Memphis Tenn. New Orleans La. Mobile & Montgomery Al. Macon, Augusta & Savannah Ga. Charleston S.C. Richmond Norfolk & Fredericksburg Va. The University of Virginia