

the canoe the boat pulling he had in came down hollowing that Lewis Blair came home. never minded to the no small horror of Edward to Mr. B. who accused them like the delightful house decorated and spear heads found in the round by Delaware Castle Stone.

August 29 This was a great day in the annals of its owner, who with circumstances or rather seeing prepared hand-Logging Bee which was to be gather the Logs lying about the party consisting of Mr. H. Mr. B. last not least effectual. a yoke

30. Sir Walter the Wagon

31 do. walked over in him company in his new house he could not think of being alone his own. got a little happy drunk

September 1 Breakfasted at Delaware Castle. Went Delaware tribe burying ground, set about fifty pointed poles assembling points painted red and the stalk triumph when halfway over N. man.

Catch it for stealing the boats when Mr. got over dressed I paddled back again at such impudence. Made apologies a sweet lady, as she is well deserving of a she lived in - saw curious old arrow neighbourhood made of flint - rode rather saddle sick - of Lot No 20 as might be seen by the aspect face was busy at an early hour preparing spikes, tea and axes, the necessaries for a assembled for the purpose of throwing to swamp at the back of the house. The Mrs. two Cranes Edward I myself and though foxes. I think 8 heaps were piled.

June in bed unwell with a swelling of glands the evening with Eben. Johnston to keep Delaware Castle Campbell having gone to Haverly on this the first night he had a foretaste of ing to his prosperity.

across in the canoe with Jeremiah to see the Indian nated or secluded on the banks of the Grand River spears with large points upon them. The marked with hieroglyphics probably