

The Indians for all so much as or adapting themselves to circumstances much in other affairs. My fellow thought when night coming on Cap, wrapped a shawl hand-in envelope, and then went bolt upright to see the glossy a nap rendered feverish by light and being wakened up, agreeably the hat having ^{been} ~~spoken~~ off by conrect, then comes the grasping next neighbour's feet flat for sometimes occurs, ~~by~~ canes, themselves among the limbs

Sept. 9 Sunday. Went to bed after Breakfast.

10 Saw Mr Pond. to commence work tomorrow Tavern & 3 awch. rather solitary.

11. Making drawing of Railroad freight car at Utica Depot. Strolling about the Capital street rising from the valley Albany going west, and forming the H, showing angles to it - evidently formed not possessed of any local advantage Running tarant at dinner. —

They travel seem to have no ideas of comfort stances, which is strange as they do so very travellers looked with a little envy as I cold, I pulled out my comfortable travelling perchance about my neck and my plaid systematically to sleep, while they sat silk hat, and dress coat, now & then getting boots strapped trousers, and neat stiff stock often, by a violent sneezing caused by ~~the~~ bump more violent than the for the hat which is found under the as a pancake — a pleasing variety umbrellas, bundles, Breastpins & transfixing of the travellers — took a laundress in the afternoon — hunting about for a place to board, slept at the Eagle

Mr. Flamm - St Louis - formerly of Cologne.

Civil goodnatured Scotchman Superintendent Big town seeing the different streets - nice place from of the Mohawk crossing the Railroad & Canal from Backbone of the place having smaller streets parallel by the Canal & Railroad for the site though pretty is for the Mohawk is sluggish and unavailable