

RESIGNATION

Of Henry P. Kinkead Accepted By Directors of First National Bank Yesterday--Succeeded by Brock.

Mr. Henry P. Kinkead, assistant cashier of the First National Bank, at a meeting of the board of directors, yesterday, tendered his resignation, which was accepted with reluctance by the body. Mr. Kinkead has had in contemplation this step for some time, and resigns that

To-day, the direction appear at the on and to- s "cyclonic" on," which is cal comedies and one that reason. Of story serves accidents and Son," has mix-up is fast laughter are

To the latter exhibition everybody grounds. scheduled to take place at the fair ing for the competitive drills that are held a special drill last night, prepar- city. Uniform Rank No. 8, of this city through the principal streets of the uniform ranks in the state, will march when the Pythians and their several there will be a monster street parade, Tuesday morning, at 9:30 o'clock mittee. open meeting of the executive com- Monday night, so as to take in the portion of the members will arrive cheer is in store. Many, or the larger annual session, and a season of good grand lodge of Kentucky will meet in Tuesday morning of next week, the freely to their numerous visitors, and beneficent order will be given to unbounded hospitality of this noble there will be an open house, and the hotel. After the business go- ish headquarters at me

PRESIDENT

Washington, the recent Roosevel- tion to the composed of a number of the title and vited to Herbert the direction appear at the on and to- s "cyclonic" on," which is cal comedies and one that reason. Of story serves accidents and Son," has mix-up is fast laughter are

USE

CLAIMS FRAUD

who have returned to the party. ings of some of the anti-Goebel men McCrea's strictures ruffed the feel- shortly after the Senator's roasts, one of the local Beckham leaders, left Democrat, now back in the ranks and ney Harvey Myers, a former Brown by some in the audience that Atton speech here took some sly shots at States Senator J. B. McCrea, in his GOVINGTON, KY.—United States

MCCREARY MAKES COSTLY BREAK

irrespective of party affiliations. ly greeting by the citizens of the town, rived he was given a most cordial, ed him to the city, and when he ar- escort of mounted men who he ar- made just out side of the city by a large- county. Great preparations had been heard a political address in Monto- the largest crowds which has ever

BELKNAP WELCOMED.

TOMPKINSVILLE, KY.—Col. Mor- ris B. Belknap spoke here to one of the largest crowds which has ever

JELICO, KY.—Social circles were made unusually active here by the recent marriage with one cere- Baker, and Stanley Baker and Mand- Brandenburgh, Ky. They had eloped from

TWO COUPLES ELOPE FROM WIN-

tant General Percy Haly. der 18. Miss Haly is a sister of Adju- he Church on the afternoon of Novem- wedding will take place at the Catho- ment of Miss Margaret Haly to M-

FRANKFORT, KY.—The engagement of Miss Margaret Haly to M-