My dear Henry

Your Grandmother sends by Dr. Way a watch for you: it belonged to your Mother, and she wants you to have it. I hope you are very well, and becoming better reconciled to your great affliction. You must not forget my dear Henry that although you are Motherless and Fatherless, you have a great many dear friends, who love you and will try to make you happy.

I suppose Mamma and Sammy are with you; give my love to them and also to Cousin Hannah she is a sweet woman, and your dear Father judged wisely in leaving his chil-dren to her. I hope your Grandfather will let you come and see us as often as he can, and spend your vacations with us. Give my best love to Aunt Susan and Uncle James, and your Grandma Your Grandma Mother sends love to all your affectionate aunt. Eps-
