

Oh Lord God, God of love and of mercy, I thank thee that thou hast permitted me to see the light of an other day, and once again to approach thy footstool with my humble prayers & applications. Forgive oh Father all the wickedness and sin which I have committed thro' life, and which I do still commit every day that I live, and make me heartily sorry and repentant therefor. Suffer oh God thy Holy Spirit to descend upon me, according to thy promise made unto all men; to comfort to-support and to direct me in the ways most acceptable unto thee; to quicken and to make more strong day by day my weak faith and belief in thee and in thy Holy Son, so that when according to thy will my appointed time shall have come I may not be cast out into utter darkness, but may be found worthy to partake of those glorious
