

For and in consideration of the affection I bear to my son John M. Clay, I have granted, given and delivered to him, and by these presents do grant, give and deliver to him three Slaves named Harvey, John, and Bob: To have and to hold the said Slaves to the said John M. Clay his heirs and assigns.

Witness my hand at Ashland this 27.th November 1848.

J. Clay.