

Denville, Thursday
My dear Sister,

I received your most welcome letter on Monday night, we are very impatient always for the arrival of the mail, & particularly so on Monday night, because of the Sunday letter - Yesterday morning (for a wonder, for we rarely budge off the place) Aunt Bertha went on to the docks & then to Bulcks & when we returned Grandmamma informed us that Young had been here, he was full of regret at not seeing her & Aunt Anne was just about ending round for him & Mrs Young to come to tea, when George Young arrived with a message from his mother
