

Louisville Ky.
1745-First Street
March 1. 1898.

My dearest Father:

Ever since the express bundle of papers came to Tom, I have wanted to write and thank you for that release. You do not know what a comfort to me it is to feel that we will have no further trouble from that source, and how grateful I am to you.

It was lovely of Will Bristow to take so much trouble out of friendship.

Tom wrote him a very nice