

it, or have some thing else, but Mrs. S's doctor thinks otherwise.

They say Mrs. Shreve will not have a trained nurse and will not allow any one to enter her room when she is sick except Mrs. Badger, Adile and the servants. Beautiful people have to pay the penalty.

Mrs. Badger's little girl has typhoid fever, and she has been trying to take charge of both patients.

Lily Ballard has been in Louisville a week and leaves for her father's country place to-morrow. Her father is going to give her a house and she has talked Austin into accepting it and they have been looking at houses ever since they got back.
