Major H. C. Mc Dowell -

My dear Major -

I would have answered your letter sooner - but have not until to-day, been able to see Dr. Vance and examine his day book - I found the desired data, and both Dr. Vance and Anderson will be able to testify as to my continuous presence in this City, for several months prior to - and subsequent to the accepted date. I was glad to hear of Tom's improvement and hope it has been progressive. I thank you for the check. I paid Dr. Bailey's expenses to and from Lexington otherwise it
