

Dear Uncle Henry

This afternoon I went to the ball game with Charley Rance whom I asked if he expected to go to Livingston to attend Nettie's wedding. He replied that he did not as he was not invited but at the same time stated that he felt satisfied there was some mistake about it because you stated you would engage a room for him at the Phoenix for the occasion. He looks upon his failure