

Office of S. G. SHARP,
ATTORNEY-AT-LAW
—AND—
JUDGE OF FAYETTE COUNTY,

Court House.

Lexington, Ky., May 21 1888

Maj H. C. McDowell,

Dear Sir,

A proposition has been made to the County Court, by Mr Clark the artist, that the County shall purchase the portrait of Henry Clay now hanging on the east wall of the Circuit Court room, and the price asked is $150.

The committee to whom the proposition was referred, thought it proper to consult with you as one of the representatives of the family, and to hear any suggestions you may desire to make.

Very respectfully,
Daniel James
