

Lexington, 1 Mar 9th 1896

Maj. H. C. McDowell
City

Dear Sir:

Thinking that possibly you intend Painting or Decorating this Spring. I take the liberty of addressing you this note, asking that you either call on me or drop me a Postal, as I would like very much to make you prices for work in my line. I will guarantee entire satisfaction in every respect. I have a very large stock of Paints also Varnishes Brushes &c which I am selling at very low prices.

No 21 W. Short St

Most Respectfully
C. D. Cunningham