My dear Colonel

Upon my return to the City Monday morning I went to the Fifth Ave Hotel hoping to find you still there, but was told you went home Saturday.

Mr Felton & I have about made up our minds to go out on Hill's new allotment road for our hunt. We will leave here about Sept 1st & hope to return by Oct 1st. Mr Hill, the President of the road says we can have first shot chicken & grouse shooting along the line of his road & sleep every night in our car, if we want
