Dear Major

In view of the shrinkage in value of any thing I propose one of the increase in price of what I am obliged to buy - from a hen's egg to a suit of clothes - I think I won't buy any good horses this fall. But I am just as much obliged to you for the trouble you took to look at Shodan here as if it had resulted in a purchase.

When it was finally settled that we couldn't go west for our annual hunt, Mr Bristow & I went to the Adirondacks for ten days.
