Dear Major
I am glad to hear that you are likely to be in New York next week. I thought I could wish you were coming earlier or later, for the reason that Judge & Mr. Greenow are to make us a visit next week and our little house could be stretched so as to provide comfortable quarters for all. However I hope to bring you together at the dining table & we will have a glass of C. L. Spivee together. And this reminds me to say that I have written
