Dear Major

Thanks to the comfort of your delightful home & to the kind hospitality of your family & yours, I am about "as good as new," and quite equal to all the work on hand. We stopped at Luzado on our return & Mr Bristow stayed there until this morning. I have been in the City every day, going out to Luzado at 8 o'clock each afternoon. Mr B came in today to attend Henry Bernard's wedding & then she goes to Hopewell to see the
