Dear Major

It is so long since I had a letter from that I forget which of us is in default.
The winter has been a very busy one with me. Most of the time has been devoted to the preparation, trial & argument of a case involving a very large sum of money as well as the character & reputation of a Banking House, one of whose members is a close personal friend. We have now finished the argument & handed in a long printed brief & suppose will hear from the judge some time this summer
