My dear Major

I come home from Worlington last Sunday & found our little grandson in a very precarious condition. He got along all right until Saturday night when kidney trouble developed & for three days his hold on life was very slender. But I am glad to say that the Dr. was promising the crisis over & that with careful treatment & close watching he should get along without further complications.
He has a good constitution & although he was weakened by Pneumonia & Bronchitis, we think
